TIGERS
2001 LSU FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

HEY FIGHTIN' TIGERS

Hey, Fightin' Tigers, fight all the way
Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today.

You've got the know how,
you're doing fine,
Hang on to the ball as you hit the wall
And smash right through the line

You've got to go for a touchdown
Run up the score.
Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.
ROAR!

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight and keep the goal in view.

VICTORY for LSU!

THIS IS LSU

NICK SABAN FOOTBALL

It didn't take long for Nick Saban to make his presence felt at LSU. In only one year he took a team that had suffered back-to-back losing seasons and returned it to the forefront of college football. He inherited an LSU program that went 3-8 in 1999, and turned into a winner with an 8-4 record and a thrilling Peach Bowl victory. With his ability to identify and develop talent, relate to his players, staff and University administrators and manage an elite program, it is safe to say that Nick Saban has made this a great time to be a part of LSU football.

"At LSU, we should always be in the Top 25 and that's our first goal as a program. We want to win our division in the Southeastern Conference and obviously if you can do that and play in the championship game, then you are going to be very close to one of the top teams in the country. LSU has a great product. In any successful organization, you have to have a great product, you have to know what the competition is and you have to have togetherness. Everybody has to have a common goal and we all have to work towards that common goal. That's the way I've been successful in other endeavors."

Saban came to LSU from Michigan State where he rebuilt the Spartans into a top-10 power. Prior to his days at Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons as defensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. He turned the Brown's defense from the worst in the NFL in points allowed the year before his arrival into a defense that allowed the fewest points in the league in 1994.

Now entering his second season at LSU, Saban will build upon a successful first campaign and continue to design his program around the fundamentals that have made him a success at every level of the sport.

Speaking of Coach Nick Saban

"He's a first-rate person and he's a marvelous football coach.He brings all the right values to the position and to the job. He believes in an exciting and up-tempo offense and yet his teams are always terrifically sound and very physical."

Bill Polian
PRESIDENT, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS

"There are a lot of guys who can draw up defenses in the dirt and draw X's and O's. The question is what little things can you find to help each player play his position? That's one thing Nick is good at."

Dean Pees
HEAD COACH, KENT STATE

Nick Saban interacts with anxious Tiger fans waiting in line for tickets in the LSU Athletic Department lobby.

The Saban Mission

1. To help make each athlete a better person for having been apart of the LSU football program.
2. To help each LSU player become a successful student-athlete and earn his degree.
3. To help every player reach his full potential and to have the opportunity to win a championship.
4. To help launch each player's career so that when he leaves LSU he can have the best opportunities in life.

EDUCATION FIRST

Saban is a communicator who gets the best out of his players, a coach who can guarantee that a player willing to dedicate himself to the program will maximize his talents.

"I'm a player's coach. I have a tremendous amount of respect for the players in college football and the game. We care about the players first of all as people and I want them to be better people for having been a part of this program. They're here to get an education first. I want every player to work to reach his full potential as a player and as a competitor. I expect our players to commit to a standard of excellence that is very high."

THE TOTAL PROGRAM

Saban built his reputation on defense as an assistant coach. As a head coach he has shown the ability to put together a total program. Being competitive on the field and stressing discipline and responsibility off the field, Saban's teams have proven to be consistent winners, while graduating student-athletes at the same time.

TEAM OWNERSHIP

The keys to Saban's success are founded on aggressive and disciplined leadership and a philosophy of personal responsibility both on the football field and in the classroom.

"One thing that I expect our players to do is to take ownership of their team. This is the players' team. I'm the coach. I want the players to take some responsibility and ownership for all the areas that are important in building this program."

Critical to the development of an athlete as a student is an adequate academic facility and capable staff to further the athlete's progress. The Academic Center for Athletes is responsible for overseeing the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes. The staff acts as a liaison between the athlete and the academic communities and insures that student-athletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and SEC. The staff also coordinates academic programs designed to assist student-athletes in acquiring a quality education.

"My dream was to earn my degree and play in the NFL. The support and guidance I received from the Academic Center for Athletes assisted me in achieving these goals and more. With hard work and assistance from the staff of the Academic Center, I earned my degree in management. I hope many, many others have the same opportunities I received."

ACADEMIC CENTER EXPANSION

Paramount to the success of the "student" half of the term student-athlete is providing LSU athletes with the best possible resources to excel in the classroom. For more than 20 years, the LSU Academic Center for Athletes has helped to build well-rounded student-athletes. But as times change and technology advances, the need for further improvements still exists. As a result, the Academic Center for Athletes

"Our academic support program should be the standard by which all academic support programs are measured. A first-class academic support center plays a major role in developing a quality academic support program for all student-athletes."– LSU football coach Nick Saban

Computer Lab

ACA RENOVATIONS

- expand the facility from 10,000 square feet to 54,000 square feet
- raise the total number of computers to 75
- include 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- add additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- provide additional study areas for specialized learning
- add a 1,000-seat auditorium

Planned improvements to the Gym Armory will not only benefit the Academic Center for Athletes, but the entire University as well. The old gymnasium will be transformed into a 1,000-seat auditorium the University will use for daily classes, presentations, lectures by distinguished University guests and other special academic events.

Reading Room

will undergo a $10 million renovation that will not only keep it among the nation's premier centers – but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center will give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services. Renovations are expected to be completed for the 2002 football season.

"The project to renovate the Gym Armory illustrates how vision and careful planning can produce a product that benefits the entire University community. The project will improve the academic support program for our student-athletes, provide a critically needed auditorium for academic lectures, classes and special events, as well as renovate and preserve a historic and much-loved building."

-- Chancellor Mark Emmert

designation is shared by only 59 public and 29 private universities in the country. One of only 25 universities nationwide designated as both a land-grant and sea-grant college, LSU is also actively pursuing space-grant status.

History and tradition began with LSU's founding in 1853 by the General Assembly of Louisiana as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy near Pineville, Louisiana. The institution opened January 2, 1860. When the Civil War began, the school's first superintendent, William Tecumseh Sherman, resigned to assume a command in the Union Army. Fire demolished the Seminary in 1869, and the school moved to Baton Rouge.

In 1870, the Seminary was renamed Louisiana State University. In 1874, under the United States Morrill Act, the Louisiana State Agricultural & Mechanical College was established in New Orleans. The two institutions were merged by the Legislature in 1877 to become Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College.

Construction of the present campus began in 1922, and the first classes were held in 1926. LSU experienced major growth in the 1930s and 1940s, expanding its student body, curricula, and services.

During the 1960s, the University began to place increasing emphasis on research.

Recognizing the importance and extent of statewide agricultural activities of units in the LSU System, the LSU Board of Supervisors in 1972 established the Center for Agricultural Sciences & Rural Development. This unit was renamed the LSU Agricultural Center in 1982. Components of the LSU Agricultural Center include the Louisiana Agricultural Experiment Station, the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service, International Programs, and Administrative Services.

What is CHAMPS?

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success, brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!

How can CHAMPS help?

By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS Program not only assists the student-athletes with meeting daily challenges, but also enhances student-athlete's growth in their college years and beyond.

LSU football players frequently visit hospitals as part of their commitment to community outreach.

CHAMPS at LSU

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program at LSU is operated out of the Academic Center for Athletes, and the focus of the program is on five commitments viewed as critical to personal growth:

I. Academic Excellence
II. Athletic Excellence
III. Career Development
IV. Personal Development
V. Community Service

Jarvis Green, a senior majoring in construction management, spent his summer gaining valuable experience working for Shaw Construction in Baton Rouge.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Being a part of the LSU football program involves more than simply playing in front of more than 90,000 crazed Tiger fans on Saturday nights. It is an opportunity to achieve athletic success while also getting a head start on the most important game of all - the game of life.

(Left) Wide out Jack Hunt took the first step in ensuring a successful life after football by clerking at the McKernan Law Firm in Baton Rouge this past summer.

The LSU football program has a longstanding internal summer jobs program that aggressively seeks opportunities to help place its players in career-developing positions within the community. The goal is to help players earn valuable experience, while getting a head start on the rest of their lives. LSU football players are expected to be extremely active in utilizing the career development resources readily available to them.

In the first year of the newly expanded Tiger Stadium, LSU averaged school-record 87,815 fans a contest, the fifth highest total in the nation in 2000. Three times last year, LSU drew crowds of 90,000 or more including a school-record mark of 91,778 against Alabama.

I've been here as a player in the early '60s. I've been here as a coach in the '80s. When the crowd is with it, there is no place like this (Tiger Stadium) in all of college football. I might add there is no place like it in the NFL. These people (LSU fans) make a difference with their squad. It's tough to play them when they get like this.

PRACTICE FACILITY

The LSU football practice facility, with four lighted full-length fields and one-full length indoor field, rivals that of any major college or professional football practice complex. The LSU football complex is also equipped with a satellite medical facility, which can service injured players as well as rehab recovering players on site.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

LSU is one of only a handful of schools in college football with a full 100-yard indoor, climate-controlled football practice facility.

The Tigers conduct their entire winter conditioning program in the Indoor Practice Facility. The facility is also a short walk from the main practice fields, giving the Tigers a quick turnaround to continue practice when inclement weather hits.

A new state-of-the-art turf, the same turf on which the Indianapolis Colts, the New York Jets and New York Giants play their games, was installed in the spring of 1998.

To simulate game conditions, the surface is crowned in the middle and all lighting is on the sides of the field. The Indoor Football Facility is located adjacent to the outdoor practice field so a practice session can resume indoors within 10 minutes if an outdoor practice is interrupted by rain or lightning.

LOCKER ROOM

The LSU locker room is located on the north end of Tiger Stadium and adjoins the recently remodeled equipment room with all the necessary features to serve a college football team. The LSU locker room was remodeled prior to the 1996 season and houses all of the football players in one room.

With locker space for 115 athletes, the LSU football locker room is superior to that of many NFL franchises. Among the features of the LSU football locker room are wide dressing areas for each player, including a locker, sitting area, storage bin, a sauna and a steam room. The locker room is also equipped with seven televisions as well as a surround sound stereo system.

NFL SCOUT DAY

Nearly 100 NFL representatives, including scouts, coaches and general managers, converge on the LSU campus each spring for Scout Day. Scout Day gives NFL scouts and executives an opportunity to view potential LSU pro prospects first hand through a series of drills. The LSU Indoor Facility is the ideal setting, giving both prospects and scouts all the necessary resources to conduct a productive session.

"I looked at Scout Day as an opportunity to prove myself at the highest level. Coming from a school like LSU, many of the scouts and general managers will have seen you on TV already, but Scout Day gives them a chance to see what you can do up close and personal. I'll never forget looking up and seeing so many scouts there, but that's the advantage of being at a school like LSU and being at a top SEC program."

- Anthony "Booger" McFarland , a Tiger from 1995-98 who went on to become the No. 1 pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1999 NFL draft.

LSU annually has one of the best attended Scout Day's in the nation. NFL scouts and executives get an opportunity to test LSU player's strength, speed, agility and jumping ability in person.

Over his last six years as a head coach, Nick Saban has seen 22 of his players selected in the NFL draft. Currently, the Tigers have at least one representative on 21 of the 31 NFL teams. Throughout its illustrious history, LSU has produced a total of 23 first-round draft choices and had one each year from 1996-99. The Tigers had three players drafted in the 2001 draft.

Tory James played on LSU's 1995 Indepedence Bowl team and he also picked up a pair of Super Bowl rings with the Denver Broncos.

The Premier Conference In College Football?

It's difficult to argue against that. The SEC placed an NCAA-record nine teams in bowl games in 2000, led the nation in attendance once again and continued to set the standard in non-conference play.

The SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

• The SEC sent an NCAA record nine teams to post-season bowls in 2000. The SEC sent eight teams to post-season bowls in 1999 and 2000. At the time, it was the first time eight teams from one conference had been to post-season bowls.

• In 2000, over five million fans passed through the turnstiles at SEC stadiums. A total of 5,197,344 fans attended 75 home games in 2000, an average of 69,298, also tops in the nation. SEC stadiums were filled to an average of 94.8 percent of capacity for each home game in 2000, also highest in the nation.

• The SEC distributed approximately $73.2 million to the 12 league institutions in the revenue sharing plans for the 1999-2000 fiscal year. The figure is the highest in league history. The money is generated from football television, bowls, SEC Football Championship Game, basketball television, the SEC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament and the NCAA Championships.

• The SEC was the first to develop the conference championship football game on the NCAA Division I-A level in 1992. The 10th SEC Football Championship Game will be played on Dec. 1 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The game will be televised by CBS Sports.

THE NATION'S BEST CONFERENCE

The SEC was 27-9 (.750) in non-conference regular season games last season, tied for first in the nation. In the 1990s, the SEC was 309-108-5 (.738) in non-conference contests.

Below is a composite record of how each conference has fared since 1990 (not including bowl games):

CONFERENCE	W-L-T	PCT.
Southeastern	336-117-5	.739
Big 12	143-70	.671
Atlantic Coast	237-125-4	.653
Big Ten	276-146-6	.652
Big Eight	138-74-4	.648
Pacific 10	247-140-4	.637
Big East	216-171-3	.558
Mountain West	36-33	.522
Southwest	100-96-5	.509
Western Athletic	223-247-4	.475
Conference USA	94-105	.472
Mid-American	118-233-6	.339
Big West	144-297-3	.328

•The 12 schools of the Southeastern Conference have appeared in 309 post-season bowl games, by far more than any other conference. The next closest league is the Big 12 with 257 appearances. The SEC has a 51.3 winning percentage in bowl games and, during the last five seasons, have posted an 22-14 bowl record, for a 61.1 winning percentage.

• Seven SEC schools placed in the top 11 in average attendance, according to the NCAA. Tennessee led all SEC schools, averaging 107,595 fans per outing. Only Michigan had a higher average than the Vols. LSU was fifth in the nation, followed by Florida sixth, Georgia seventh, Alabama eighth, Auburn ninth and South Carolina 11th.

• The SEC tied the Big East Conference for the highest winning percentage in non-conference games during the 2000 regular season. The SEC posted a 27-9 mark (.750) while the Big East was 24-8 (.750).

• Seven SEC teams finished in the final Top 25 of the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls. LSU was 22nd in the AP. It marked the second straight year that the SEC had seven teams in the final polls and also the second time in SEC history.

• The SEC has placed more teams in the final AP Top 10 poll since 1990 than any other conference. The league has been in the AP Top 10 a total of 23 times since 1990, while the Big 12 is second with 21 appearances and the Big Ten third at 18.

 — died in plane crash on Jan. 10, 1980 (appointed head coach Nov. 30, 1979)

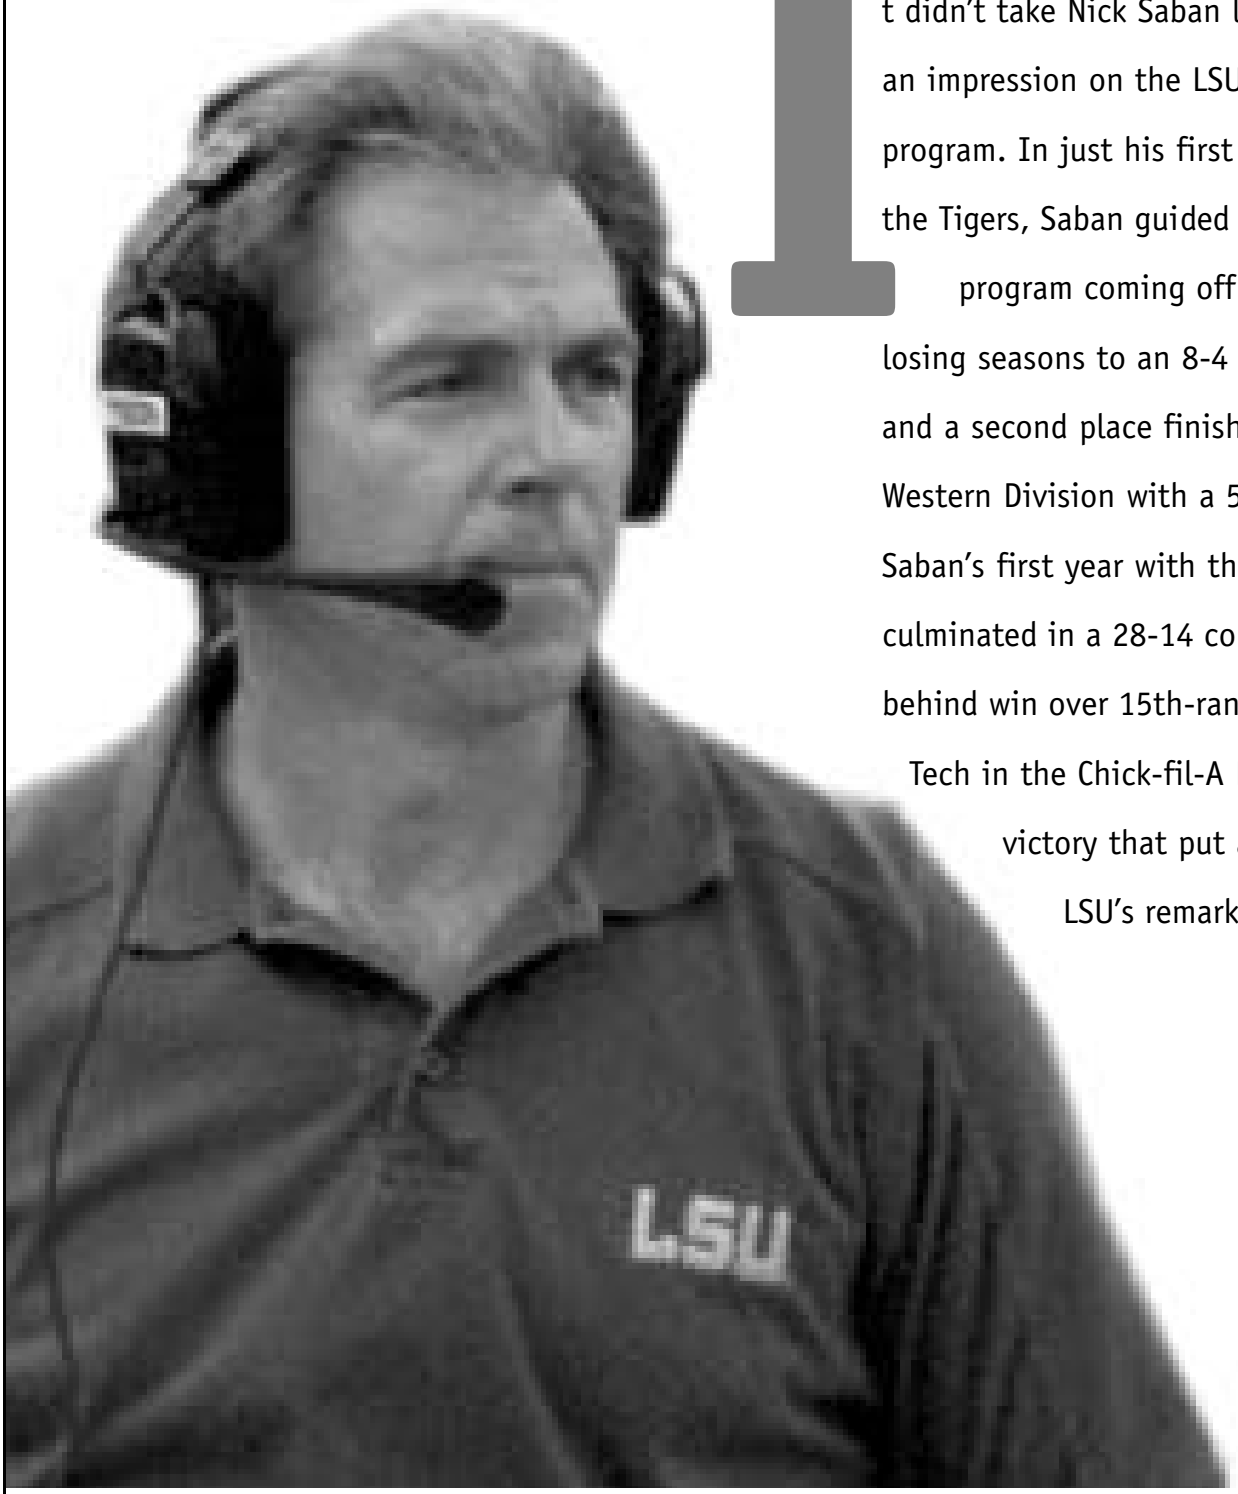
Paul Dietzel led the Tigers to the 1958 National Championship and the 1961 SEC Championship.

Charles McClendon led LSU to 12 bowl games in 18 seasons.

Bill Arnsparger had all three of his Tiger teams reach bowl games, including the 1986 team that was SEC Champions.

Head Coach



It didn't take Nick Saban long to make an impression on the LSU football program. In just his first season with the Tigers, Saban guided an LSU program coming off back-to-back losing seasons to an 8-4 overall mark and a second place finish in the SEC Western Division with a 5-3 record. Saban's first year with the Tigers culminated in a 28-14 come-from-behind win over 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, a victory that put a cap on LSU's remarkable season.

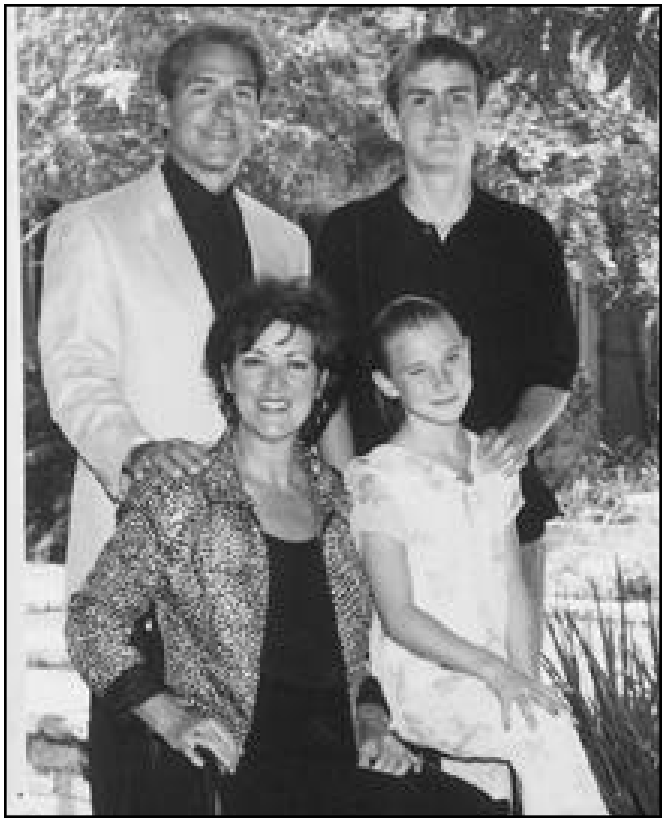
NICK SABAN

The turnaround can be attributed to Saban's ability to make the Tigers a team again. Using catch phrases such as "team ownership"and "playing for 60 minutes"the players bought into the Saban system.The results were outstanding as the Tigers'eight wins in 2000 were one more than LSU won in the two previous seasons combined.LSU also won four-straight SEC games for the first time since 1988,beat Alabama in Baton Rouge for the first time since 1969 and won its first road game since 1998 with a 20-9 victory over Ole Miss in Oxford.

Saban's plan started with an off-season program like LSU had never experienced before. LSU's strength and conditioning program,which also included the players participating in karate at least once a week, had the Tigers bigger, faster and stronger than any team in recent history when it reported to camp in August.As a result, the Tigers didn't wear down in the fourth quarter of games and many times they were just hitting their stride as the contest wore on.LSU won five games in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2000, including scoring 16 points in the final period to beat Alabama and coming from 14 points down in the fourth quarter to eventually upset nationally-ranked Mississippi State in overtime.LSU also survived a furious second-half rally to beat then No. 11-ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime. This was all part of Saban's plan of playing for 60 minutes regardless of what the scoreboard read.After trailing 14-3 at halftime to Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, LSU responded with 19 fourth quarter points to soundly beat the Yellow Jackets, 28-14.

There were some bumps along the way as the Tigers fell to UAB at home in September and then a week after the Tennessee win, were soundly defeated by Florida. However, with each setback the Tigers seemed to regroup and respond proving Saban's system was having an effect. A week after the UAB loss, LSU beat Tennessee then came back to shutout Kentucky a week after the Florida defeat.The shutout over Kentucky marked the only one for the Wildcats during the Hal Mumme era. It was preserved with an interception in the endzone late in the contest, proving once again that Saban had his Tigers playing until the final whistle.



Nick and Terry Saban with Nicholas and Kristen.

"He's a first-rate person and he's a marvelous football coach. He brings all the right values to the position and to the job."

-Bill Polian, the president of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts

The Saban plan is simple. He wants his players to first of all be successful as people and then as students so they have the best opportunity to get an education and graduate from school. On the field, Saban would like for every player to reach his full potential, thus creating the opportunity to play for championships. Finally, using all the resources LSU can offer, it is the goal of Saban and his staff to help every player who graduates from LSU launch his career so he can get the best opportunities in life.

With this formula,Saban not only plans to build a championship team on the field, but to also make his players better people for having been involved with the program.

Saban became the 31st head coach of the LSU Tigers on November 30, 1999, after five years as head coach at Michigan State.

Saban has long been revered in football coaching circles as one of the keen minds of the game, after having coached under some of the best football technicians in the country, both on the college and professional levels. But when he rebuilt the Michigan State program,taking it from NCAA probation and scholarship limitations to top 10 rankings and New Year's Day bowls, Nick Saban became a household name.

His final Spartan team finished with a No. 7 ranking in the nation and became the first Michigan State team to win 10 games in one season in 34 years.

In addition, Saban's 1999 Michigan State team defeated Notre Dame,Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State all in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins in East Lansing for the first time since the 1912 season.

Saban built his reputation as an assistant coach, but as a head coach he has shown the ability to put together a total program,one that produces in big numbers on both sides of the football while stressing discipline and responsibility off the field.

"He's a first-rate person and he's a marvelous football coach," said Bill Polian, the president of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts, who is considered one of the premier football minds in America today. "He brings all the right values to the position and to the job. He believes in an exciting and up-tempo offense and yet his teams are always terrifically sound and very physical."

"No-nonsense" is one description of his style of coaching,but consistent and exacting might be more precise. "Hard work" can be attached to any successful program,but also working smart is a trademark of Saban coached teams. The keys to Saban's success are founded on aggressive and disciplined leadership and a philosophy of personal responsibility both on the football field and in the classroom.

"Basically, if anybody doesn't want to work hard or be committed to the way he's committed, then they're going to have a problem with him. Now, if they like to work, they won't have any problems at all."

-Bill Belichick, Head Coach of the NFL's New England Patriots

Saban rebuilds a Michigan State program that has been decimated by NCAA sanctions, taking the Spartans to a top 10 finish in his final year as head coach.

Saban was at Michigan State for five years.

Saban is named the 31st head coach in LSU football history.

or be committed to the way he's committed, then they're going to have a problem with him," said Belichick, now coach of the New England Patriots. "Now, if they like to work, they won't have any problems at all."

Saban is a communicator who gets the best out of his players,a coach who can guarantee that a player willing to dedicate himself to the program will maximize his talents.

"Instead of looking at the overall picture, he gives his players something they can really lash their teeth into,which allows them to play more aggressively," said Dean Pees,the head coach at Kent State who served as a defensive coordinator under Saban. "There are a lot of guys who can draw up defenses in the dirt and draw X's and O's. The question is what little things can you find to help each player play his position? That's one thing Nick is good at."

Saban has a career won-loss record of 51-30-1 for a winning percentage of .628, a total that includes five years as head coach at Michigan State (1995-99) and one season as head coach at LSU and Toledo (1990). He also has extensive experience in the NFL, having coached the secondary of the Houston Oilers for two seasons (1988 89) and having served as defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns for four seasons (1991-94).

Despite taking over a program in 1995 that was riddled with scholarship limitations as a result of NCAA sanctions,Saban's success at Michigan State was immediate. He became the first coach in school history to lead the Spartans into postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons, taking Michigan State to the 1995 Independence Bowl,1996 Sun Bowl and 1997 Aloha Bowl.

During his five-year tenure as head coach at Michigan State, Saban tutored four first-team All-Americans and 10 NFL draft picks.

The 49-year-old Saban arrived at Michigan State following four seasons as the Cleveland Browns' defensive coordinator from 1991-94.The Browns went from allowing the most points in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points in 1994.His defensive unit allowed a league-low 21 touchdowns and 204 points in 1994 the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history.

Saban previously served as head coach at the University of Toledo where he guided the Rockets to a 9-2 record overall in 1990,

As the Tigers' recruiting coordinator, Dooley engineered a consensus top three signing class in 2001.LSU's 2001 signing class included three Parade All-Americas and six USA Today All-Americas.

While at SMU, he helped develop a young group of receivers including Albert Johnson, who became the first player in SMU history to have three straight multiple touchdown games. In 1999,Dooley helped develop two true freshmen, Chris Cunningham and Cody Cardwell, who caught 70 passes for 1,039 yards and eight touchdowns.

A native of Athens,Ga., Dooley attended the University of Virginia, where he walked on the football team and earned a scholarship following his second season.While at Virginia,Dooley participated in three bowl games (Sugar, Citrus,All-American) and helped the Cavaliers win the 1989 ACC Championship. Michael Haywood

Running Backs/Special Teams Coordinator

Michael Haywood enters his seventh season as coach of the LSU running backs. During that time he has helped produce some of the finest running backs in school history. In addition to his role as running backs coach, Haywood will also assume the responsibility of Special Teams Coordinator for the Tigers in 2001.

Last year, Haywood played a key role in the development of redshirt freshman tailback LaBrandon Toefield as well as that of Domanick Davis. Toefield, who was named first team Freshman All-America by the Sporting News, rushed for 682 yards and five TDs despite missing two games with an injury. Toefield's top two rushing games came against two of the nation's best run defenses. He had 120 yards rushing and one TD against Tennessee and 119 yards and a pair of scores, including the game winner in overtime, against Mississippi State. Davis rushed for 445 yards and five TDs for the Tigers. In Toefield's absence against Ole Miss, Davis stepped in and rushed for a career-best 106 yards and two TDs in the 20-9 LSU victory.

Haywood was instrumental in developing Kevin Faulk and Rondell Mealey into two of the most productive running backs in school history. Faulk left LSU with virtually every rushing record,while Mealey capped his career ranked in the top 10 in both rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. Both were chosen in the NFL draft after their respective senior seasons, Faulk going to New England in the second round and Mealey in the seventh round to Green Bay.

While at Ball State, Haywood was the position coach for three All-Mid-American Conference players. Brian Oliver was selected All-MAC in 1993,then Tony Nibbs and Michael Blair earned all-league honors in 1994. In addition, Blair was the MAC's Freshman of the Year in 1993 and went on to play for the Green Bay Packers of the NFL.

Haywood started his coaching career at Minnesota as a graduate assistant in 1988, then went to Army as an assistant coach in 1989 and 1990.In 1989 he coached the defensive secondary before taking on the outside linebackers in 1990.

He then coached at Ohio University in 1991 for two years, tutoring the outside linebackers there as well.

As a collegiate player, Haywood earned four letters at Notre Dame,playing wide receiver as a freshman, then moving to cornerback where he started in each of his final three seasons.

Haywood, a native of Houston, Texas, is a 1982 graduate of St. Thomas High School in Houston.

Assistant Coaches

Stan Hixon

Associate Head Coach/Wide Receivers

Stan Hixon enters his second season as wide receivers coach for LSU, after playing a key role in the emergence of Josh Reed as one of the nation's premier wide receivers in 2000.

Last year under Hixon's watch,Reed ranked first in the Southeastern Conference and sixth nationally with 102.5 yards receiving a contest.In addition, Reed was second in the league and 21st in the nation with 5.9 receptions a contest.Reed caught 65 passes (third in school history) for 1,127 yards (second in school history) and 10 TDs (second in school history),doing it all despite playing his first full season at wide receiver after shifting from his original position of tailback during the 1999 season. For his efforts,Reed was a consensus first team All-SEC selection.

Reed wasn't the only receiver to shine last year for the Tigers as Reggie Robinson caught 31 passes for 391 yards and two TDs, while Jerel Myers hauled in 29 passes for 347 yards and three scores. In all, LSU receivers combined for eight 100-yard games last season and Robinson and Reed each caught 10 passes in one game.

Hixon's success coaching wide receivers should not come as a surprise as he developed some of the most prolific receivers in Georgia Tech history from 1995-1999.

Hixon, who joined LSU in December of 1999, coached All-Atlantic Coast Conference receivers Kelly Campbell and Dez White at Georgia Tech in 1999. Campbell in 1999 was No.2 in the ACC and 12th nationally in receiving yards per game (100.5) and he set school records for receptions (69), receiving yards (1,105) and touchdowns (10). Campbell earned first-team All-ACC honors and White was named second-team All-ACC as they formed the most prolific receiving tandem in Georgia Tech history.

Prior to the emergence of Campbell and White, Hixon tutored the receiving duo of Harvey Middleton, who rewrote Tech's receiving records at the time, and Derrick Steagall,who ranks as one of the Yellow Jackets' career leaders.

Hixon went to Georgia Tech in 1995 after serving as running back coach and assistant head coach at Wake Forest for two seasons.While at Wake Forest,Hixon tutored the leading rusher in the ACC, Jon Leach,who became the first 1000-yard rusher for the Deamon Deacons in almost two decades.

Stan and Rebecca Hixon with son Drew and daugthers Adele(l) and Avis.

He also served as receivers coach at South Carolina from 1989-92, producing All-American wideouts Robert Brooks and Eddie Miller, both of whom played in the NFL. He coached at Appalachian State from 1983-88,helping the Mountaineers capture consecutive Southern Conference titles in 1986 and 1987,after he serving as running backs coach at Morehead State from 1980-82 and tight ends coach at Richmond in 1980.

Hixon, a native of Lakeland,Fla., played at Iowa State.He led the Cyclones in receiving his junior and senior seasons and played in the 1977 Peach Bowl and the 1978 Hall of Fame Bowl. Bowl Championship Series

Starting in 1998, the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) determined the Division 1-A National Championship in football. In the BCS's first season, Tennessee defeated Florida State 23-16,in the Fiesta Bowl to claim the National title. The following year, Florida State topped Virginia Tech 46-29 in the Sugar Bowl for their second national title in seven years. Last year, Cinderella Oklahoma defeated Florida State 13-0 in the Orange Bowl to claim their first national title since 1986.

The BCS Series consist of the Rose Bowl,Orange Bowl, Sugar Bowl and Fiesta Bowl. Conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East,Big Ten,Big Twelve, Pacific Ten, and Southeastern Conferences.

In January 2000, BCS members voted to extend the BCS agreement with ABC through the 2005 regular season and 2006 bowl season allowing for e of the four bowls to host two national championship games.

The BCS also notes the importance of regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a mem ber of the BCS, the Rose Bowl w host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion in those years when the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other regional consideration tie-ins include the SEC Champion in the Sugar Bowl,the ACC or Big East Champion in the Orange Bowl, and the Big 12 Champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

Any Division 1-A independent am or the champion of any Division 1-A conference,which is ranked sixth or higher in the BCS standings,is also eligible for the Bowl Championship Series.

A year ago 1.25 million fans nded college football's 25 bowl games. This season there will be 26 post-season bowl games,from the 88th Annual Rose Bowl,to the first year New Orleans Bowl.

Tigers Cap Remarkable Season With Win Over Georgia Tech in Peach Bowl

LSU capped its remarkable turnaround season with a remarkable 28-14 turnaround victory over Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Dec.29 in Atlanta.

Trailing 14-3 at halftime after managing just 117 yards of total offense in the first half,the Tigers needed a spark.Quarterback Rohan Davey provided just the lift that LSU needed.Davey, who watched the first half from the sidelines,started the third quarter for the Tigers and the results were immediate as he marched his team on a nine-play, 70-yard scoring drive to bring LSU to within 14-9. The opening drive of the second half set the tone for what would be a dominating final 30 minutes for the Tigers.LSU held the powerful Georgia Tech offense scoreless in the second half as the Yellow Jackets managed only 100 yards of offense to go along with five turnovers.

LSU took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when Davey hit Josh Reed with a 9-yard scoring pass,giving the Tigers a 17-14 advantage. A John Corbello field goal and a Davey-to-Tommy Banks TD pass rounded out the scoring for the Tigers as LSU upset the 15th-ranked Yellow Jackets.

Davey completed 17 of 25 passes for 174 yards and three touchdowns,all coming in the second half.Reed led all receivers with an LSU bowl record-tying nine receptions for 96 yards,while LaBrandon Toefield rushed for 78 yards on 22 carries.

The win over Georgia Tech marked the fifth for LSU in its last six bowl appearances.The Peach Bowl contest was LSU's 32nd bowl game appearance,18 of which have come on New Year's Day.

Tigers Lead League With Eight All-SEC Members On Coaches Poll

LSU was rewarded for its 8-4 season by having a conference-best eight players selected either first or second team All-SEC in the Coaches Poll. Heading the list for the Tigers as first-team selections were quarterback Josh Booty, wide receiver Josh Reed and tight end Robert Royal. Booty became the first LSU quarterback to be named All-SEC since Tommy Hodson won the award in 1989. Reed was the first LSU wide-out named by SEC coaches since Todd Kinchen was honored in 1991. Royal became the first LSU tight end to be named to the Coaches'First-Team since David LaFleur in 1996.

LSU players named to the Coaches'second team included offensive lineman Brandon Winey, linebackers Trev Faulk and Bradie James,cornerback Fred Booker and free safety Ryan Clark.

In addition to the Coaches Poll,Louis Williams and Reed were named first team All-SEC by the Associated Press,while Royal and Faulk were members of the second team.

Winey Named All-American by the Sporting News

LSU Offensive tackle Brandon Winey was named to The Sporting News'All-American Third Team. Winey became the first Tiger to be named an All-American since noseguard Anthony McFarland and center Todd McClure were named in 1998.

Reed, Toefield and Lavalais Named Freshmen All-Americans by the Sporting News

Offensive lineman Rodney Reed,tailback LaBrandon Toefield and defensive tackle Chad Lavalais'contributions to the 2000 Tigers didn't go unnoticed as the trio was selected to The Sporting News'Freshman All-America team.Reed and Toefield both earned first team status, while Lavalais,who came on late at defensive tackle, earned a spot on the third team. Toefield rushed for 682 yards and five touchdowns,best among all freshman in the SEC, while Reed started seven games on the offensive line for LSU and was instrumental in the Tigers allowing just 12 sacks for the season.Lavalais started the final three games and posted 22 tackles, including three for losses and one sack.

Reed Shined At Wide Receiver in 2000

In his first full season at wide receiver after being converted from tailback in Week 9 of the 1999 season,sophomore Josh Reed threatened to break every receiving record in LSU history. Reed came up just short but he did manage to catch 65 passes (third most in school history) for 1,127 yards (second most in school history) and 10 touchdowns (second most in school history.) Reed also tied an

SEC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Three LSU players earned SEC Player of the Week honors during the year. Quarterbacks Rohan Davey and Josh Booty, as well as running back LaBrandon Toefield were cited for their performances in LSU wins over Tennessee,Alabama and Mississippi State.

Rohan Davey vs. Tennessee on Sept. 30.

Completed 23-of-35 passes for 318 yards and a school-record tying four touchdowns in the 38-31 over-time win over No.11 Tennessee.Hit Robert Royal with a 25-yard TD pass on the first play of overtime for what proved to be the game winner for the Tigers.

LaBrandon Toefield vs. Mississippi St. on Oct. 21

Rushed for 119 yards and two touchdowns in LSU's 45-38 overtime win over No.13 Mississippi State. MSU entered the game allowing just 25 yards rushing a contest,a number that ranked No.1 in the nation. Clinched the game in overtime with a 13-yard run.

Josh Booty vs. Alabama on Nov. 4

LSU record by having six 100-yard receiving games,five of which came in SEC action.

Reed,a First-Team All-SEC pick in three different polls,led the SEC in receiving yards per game with just over 102 per contest,and he also ranked second in the league in total receiving yards as well as receptions.Of Reed's 10 TD receptions, four were 45 yards or longer, including a 75-yard score against Auburn.

Reed caught a career-best 10 passes in the win over Mississippi State,a career-high three TD passes against Tennessee and a career-high of 173 yards receiving with a TD against Ole Miss.Reed closed the year by recording 100-yard receiving games in three of the last four contests.

Peanut Butter and Jelly Sandwiches

One of the most popular stories to come out of LSU last season is the one involving peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.The point of the story is that in past years LSU players would have a choice between cold cuts and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for a snack prior to lights out on the Friday night before the game.Not being aware of how popular the peanut butter and jelly sandwiches were with the players,LSU coach Nick Saban just offered cold cuts (as he always did in his five years at Michigan State) to the players for the Friday night snack.Somewhere along the way, the players pleaded for the return of the peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and then the deal was struck - win three straight SEC games and they'll return as the Friday night snack.LSU's win over Alabama marked victory for the players so the PB&J sandwiches returned to the snack menu for the remainder of the season.

LSU Shatters Home Attendance Mark; Rank Fifth Nationally

With Tiger Stadium expanded to 91,600,LSU easily broke the school's single-season attendance mark as the Tigers drew 614,704 fans for their seven home games.LSU averaged 87,815 fans per home contest, which included sellouts against Alabama and Tennessee.LSU reset the Tiger Stadium record three times during the year and the Tigers capped their home season with a school-record crowd of 91,778 for the Alabama game.The Tigers ranked fifth in the nation in average attendance as only Michigan, Tennessee,Ohio State and Penn State had larger attendances than LSU.

Fantastic Finishes

Not only were the Tigers good in 2000,but they also became a team that was fun to watch and one that left you hanging on the edge of your seat until the final horn sounded.Last season alone, LSU had three of its games decided on the final play. UAB kicked a field goal to beat LSU, 13-10, on the game's final play back in September. A week later against Tennessee,the LSU offense scored on its first play from scrimmage in overtime and then watched as the Tiger defense held Tennessee on fourth down inside the 15 for the victory. The same was true against Mississippi State as the Tiger offense scored a TD on its first possession in overtime and watched as the defense turned away the Bulldogs on a fourth down play to end the contest. LSU also scored 16 fourth quarter points to comeback to beat Alabama in a game that made the Tigers bowl eligible.

Turnovers the Difference for the Tigers

The secret to LSU's success in 2000 may be pretty simple - turnovers.LSU was plus 14 in the turnover column in games in which they won compared to minus 10 in the losses.In LSU's five SEC wins,the Tigers turned the ball over just five times, while LSU had eight turnovers in its three league losses,including three against Arkansas.Prior to the Arkansas game,LSU turned the ball over only four times during its four-game winning streak (1 fumble,3 interceptions).

Royal Sets School Mark for TDs by a Tight End

Senior Robert Royal set the school-record for TD receptions in a single-season by a tight end with his two scoring grabs vs.Alabama. For the season,Royal had five TD receptions,breaking the previous record of four held by Doug Moreau (1964) and Brian Kinchen (1986). For the season, Royal caught 22 passes for 340 yards along with his five TDs.

Three Tigers Named to Verizon Academic Honor Roll

LSU's Louis Williams, Trev Faulk and Tommy Banks were all named to the Verizon Academic All-District VI football team. Faulk,who ranked second in the SEC with 113 tackles,had a 3.2 grade point average in business administration,while Williams, a First-Team All-SEC pick at center, had a 3.875 GPA in pre-medicine. Tommy Banks posted a 3.4 GPA in microbiology.

Domanick Davis Moves Up Kickoff Return Charts; Surpasses 1,000-Yard Mark For Career

With 92 yards in kickoff returns vs.Alabama, sophomore Domanick Davis became only the fourth player in school history to reach the 1,000-yard mark in kickoff returns.Davis moved past Eddie Kennison into second place on LSU's all-time kickoff return list with 66 return yards against Arkansas. For his career, Davis has 1,190 kickoff return yards on 46 kickoff returns. In 1999,Davis set the school's single-season kickoff return record with 618 yards on 25 returns.

Three Tigers Taken In NFL Draft

Three LSU players were selected in the 2001 NFL Draft last April.Offensive tackle Brandon Winey was the first Tiger selected as he was taken in the sixth round (164th pick) by the Miami Dolphins. Quarterback Josh Booty, who elected to skip his senior season, was also taken in the sixth round (172nd pick) by the Seattle Seahawks. Senior offensive lineman Louis Williams was chosen by the Carolina Panthers in the seventh round (211th pick).

LaBrandon Toefield scores ... 74 yards ... HOLY COW!!!"

Attendance: 82,469

WHAT THEY SAID...

"I knew I was going to get in. Once I got to the outside and saw the daylight, I was dead gone. I didn't look back. The ball just came my way and I went up and got it. I was doing a little nail biting before that, but coach Saban said the defense was going to have to pull it out."

– LSU's Damien James after his game-clinching 56-yard int. return

"He (Damien James) made a great play on the interception. Damien's been getting better and better all the time. He's really blossomed as a safety, a nickel safety for us. He plays the deep part of the field well for us. He has good ball judgment in terms of making plays on the ball."

– LSU head coach Nick Saban

NOTES ON THE GAME:

- LSU wore purple jerseys for the first time since Nov. 12,1994, when the Tigers lost to Southern Miss,20-18, in Death Valley.
- With 177 yards passing,LSU junior quarterback Josh Booty moved into 10th place on the LSU career passing list with 2,298 career yards. Booty moved past Mike Hillman.
- LSU junior tight end Joe Domingeaux's 11-yard touchdown reception from Josh Booty was the second of his career, the first since his true freshman season in 1997 against Akron.
- The Tigers held opponents to seven consecutive scoreless quarters to start the season.That marks the best start in the modern era (dating back to the 1962 season) surpassing the 1998 start when the Tigers opened the season with a 27-0 victory over Texas A&M, then held Tennessee scoreless for the first two quarters of their match-up before winning 34-9 in Knoxville to total six scoreless quarters.
- It was the first time since the Vanderbilt game in 1997 that LSU totaled fewer yards than its opponent and still won the game.In '97, the Commodores gathered 248 total net yards, while the Tigers gained 230 total net yards.
- The fourth quarter interception in the Houston endzone by sophomore Damien James was the first of his collegiate career. His second interception, which occurred later that quarter, was his first to be returned for a touchdown. It was the first interception returned for a touchdown since Johnny Mitchell's 66-yard return against Alabama in 1999.

Josh Booty moved into 10th place on the all-time LSU passing list with 2,298 yards.

Linebacker Bradie James hauls down a Houston receiver for one of his nine tackles against the Cougars.

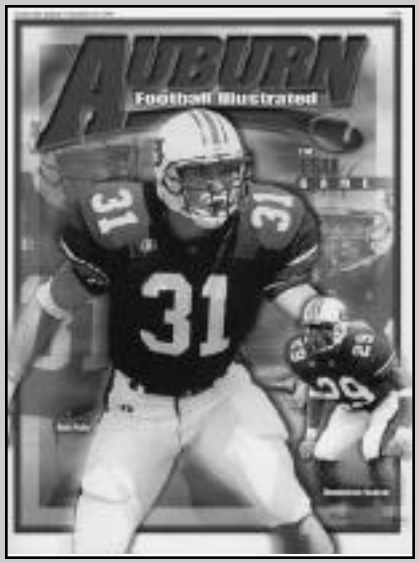
Game Three



#24 Auburn 34
LSU 17

September 16, 2000
Jordan-Hare Stadium
Auburn, Ala.
Attendance: 85,612

WHAT THEY SAID...

"The biggest problem was we couldn't control the line. We had too much pressure on our quarterback and didn't put enough on theirs.

"It (Tim Carters'100-yard kickoff return) was a killer. We put together a nice drive to cut it to three. We had some momentum, but then that happens."

– LSU head coach Nick Saban

"He's a guy who is capable of big plays, and he made them today. I had been kind of disappointed in the first two games. There were a lot of drops."

-- LSU head coach Nick Saban on the play of wide receiver Josh Reed

LSU DROPS BATTLE OF TIGERS, 34-17

LSU gave 24th-ranked Auburn all it could handle for three quarters before eventually wearing down and falling,34-17 on the plains. LSU jumped out to a 10-0 first-quarter lead after Josh Booty hit Josh Reed with a 75-yard scoring strike followed by a 22-yard field goal from John Corbello.Auburn rallied behind the physical running of Rudi Johnson,who carried the ball 36 times for 139 yards,and the pin-point passing of Ben Leard,who finished 21-for-30 for 225 yards and a pair of TD passes. With a 13-point second quarter, Auburn carried a 13-10 lead at the half. After Auburn increased the lead to 20-10, LSU rallied with a 45-yard strike from Booty to Reed to cut the lead to three, but a 100-yard touchdown return by Tim Carter on the ensuing kickoff was the back-breaker for LSU. Johnson closed out the scoring with a 2-yard run with three seconds remaining.

NOTES ON THE GAME:

- Josh Reed recorded his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the third of his career. Reed has only been used as a receiver for six games in his career and has broken the 100-yard barrier in half of those games.
- Reggie Robinson's 9-yard reception in the first quarter extended his streak of consecutive games with a catch to 20, the longest current streak of any LSU player.
- Rohan Davey misfired on his first attempt, snapping his streak of consecutive completions at 17. The 17 consecutive passes is an LSU record and tied for the third-longest streak in SEC history. Davey's streak began in the 1999 season finale against Arkansas when he hit his final six passes and was extended to 17 with an 11-for-11 showing in the season opener against Western Carolina.
- Josh Booty's 75-yard strike to Josh Reed gave the Tigers two passing plays of over 75 yards in one season for the first time since 1994 (Jamie Howard to Brett Bech, 76 and 81 yard passes). Booty hit Reggie Robinson with an 80-yard TD pass in the season opener against Western Carolina.
- With his 45-yard TD pass to Reed, Booty had at least two TD passes in LSU's first three games of the 2000 season.

Josh Reed's 75-yard TD reception from Josh Booty gave LSU a 7-0 lead.

Trev Faulk's first quarter fumble recovery helped LSU build an early 10-0 lead.

WHAT THEY SAID...

"We squandered too many opportunities. And when you squander that many opportunities you let a team think they can win.

"Every negative has a silver lining you can learn from. The biggest thing we did was we shot ourselves in the foot too many times."

– LSU head coach Nick Saban

"There's no doubt we could move the ball on this team. We moved the ball up and down the field, but we couldn't get it in the end zone. And it seems like every time we get a nice run, the play gets called back because of a penalty."

-- LSU center Louis Williams

TIGERS FALL TO UAB ON LAST-SECOND FIELD GOAL, 13-10

UAB's Rhett Gallego kicked a 32-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Blazers to an unlikey 13-10 win over LSU in Tiger Stadium.Gallego's field goal came just seconds after UAB's Chris Brown intercepted a Josh Booty pass and returned it 25 yards to the LSU 17-yard line with 25 seconds left in the contest. UAB defeated the Tigers despite picking up just 178 yards of total offense,which included only 57 yards of offense in the second half. UAB led 10-0 at halftime before the Tigers managed to tie the game at 10-10 on a 35-yard field goal by John Corbello with 10:33 left in the contest.The two teams traded possessions before UAB kicked the game winner as time expired. Domanick Davis led the Tigers with 226 all-purpose yards and LSU's only touchdown of the evening,a one-yard run at the 3:04 mark in the third quarter. Linebacker Trev Faulk led the LSU defense with 13 tackles.

WHAT THEY SAID...

"We were really relentless. We kept coming back and coming back. The offensive line did a fantastic job blocking some pretty good football players. Those guys (Mississippi State's defenders) got a little tired, and that helped us."

– LSU head coach Nick Saban

"I thought we had this game won when we were up 31-17. They came back and beat us by not giving up."

– Miss. St. RB Dontae Walker

"I've been here as a player in the early '60s. I've been here as a coach in the '80s. When the crowd is with it, there is no place like this in all of college football. I might add there is no place like it in the NFL. These people (LSU fans) make a difference with their squad. It's tough to play them when they get like this."

– Color analyst Bill Curry, ESPN2

NOTES ON THE GAME:

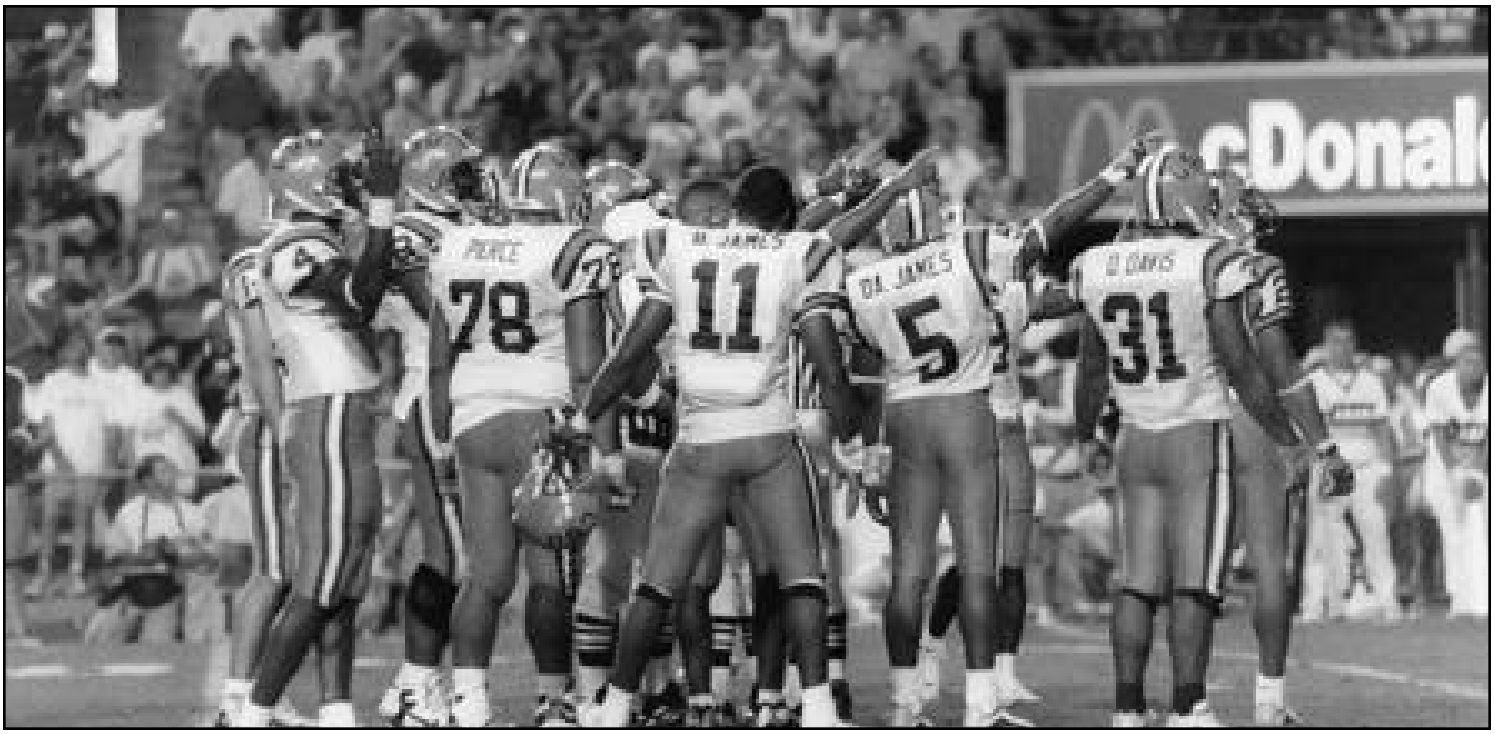
- LSU beat Alabama in Tiger Stadium for the first time since a 20-15 win over the Crimson Tide on Nov. 8, 1969.
- Domanick Davis' 46-yard kickoff return after Alabama's second-period touchdown moved him past Sammy Martin into third place in LSU history in kickoff return yardage with 1,070 yards.
- Josh Reed's two touchdown receptions were his ninth and 10th of the season, marking the second most receiving TD's in a single season in LSU history. School record holder Wendell Davis had 11 TD receptions in 1986.
- LSU ran its total to 23 touchdown passes this season, which ranks second in school history for TD passes in a season. The 2000 Tigers moved within three of the school record of 26 set in 1989.
- Trev Faulk recovered a fumble for the fourth time during the 2000 season. Faulk's four recoveries on the year were the most for an LSU player since Gregg Dubroc had five recoveries in 1981.
- Robert Royal's two TD receptions ran his season total to five,setting a school record for touchdown catches by a tight end in a single season. He broke the old record held by Brian Kinchen, who had four in 1986, and Doug Moreau,who had four in 1964.



The Tigers point toward the video replay board to question the referee's call late in the game.

NOTES ON THE GAME:

- With a 28-yard reception in the second quarter, Josh Reed went over the 1,000-yard plateau becoming only the third receiver in LSU history to record a 1,000-yard season joining Wendell Davis (1,244 in 1986) and Eric Martin (1,064 in 1983).
- Reed had his sixth 100-yard game of the season tying Wendell Davis' school record in the category, set in 1986.It was also Reed's seventh career 100-yard game in only 13 career games as a receiver.
- With a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, Reggie Robinson extended his team-high streak of consecutive games with a catch to 27. Josh Reed extended his personal streak to 13 straight games with a reception.
- Jerel Myers'streak of 20 games with a reception came to an end as the sophomore split end failed to catch a pass against the Rebels. Coming into the game, Myers had caught a pass in every game of his LSU career.
- The record-breaking crowd of 52,476 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium marked the fifth time in LSU's 10 games last season that the Tigers played in front of a stadium record crowd - three times at home and twice on the road - Western Carolina, Tennessee and Alabama at Tiger Stadium,and Auburn and Ole Miss on the road.
- LSU snapped a 10-game road losing streak dating back to Sept.19, 1998, when LSU beat Auburn,31-19.

Bradie James had a game-high seven unassisted tackles, holding Heisman hopeful Deuce McAllister to 48 yards.

WHAT THEY SAID...

"We can talk about this as long as we want, but I'm going to tell you exactly what I told the team. There's never been a team that I've been associated with that I'm any more proud of the way they played throughout the year, and I've never been around a team that improved more from a character and attitude standpoint than this bunch did. I'm proud as heck to be a part of the team we have."

"It's hard to travel all this way and lose a game. We had a good season overall, though."

TURNOVERS HAUNT LSU IN 14-3 LOSS TO ARKANSAS

Arkansas turned a pair of LSU turnovers into 14 points as the Razorbacks upset the 24th-ranked Tigers,14-3, on a cold and rainy afternoon in Little Rock.The loss ended LSU's hopes to clinch a share of the SEC Western Division title,and it snapped the Tigers'four-game winning streak.The Razorbacks got all the scoring they needed on LSU's first play from scrimmage as linebacker Quinton Caver intercepted a Josh Booty pass and returned it 33-yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. LSU marched down the field on its next possession,however, the drive stalled inside the Razorback 10-yard line and the Tigers were forced to settle for a John Corbello 27-yard field goal.Arkansas added another TD midway through the fourth quarter after LSU fumbled a punt. The Tigers managed a season-low 149 yards of total offense,including only 36 yards in the second half.LSU's defense held Arkansas to just 253 yards of total offense.

G. Ellwood "Doc" Fenton

G. Ellwood "Doc" Fenton, nicknamed "Kandy Kid" was one of the early great players in LSU football history and a leader on the Tigers' first truly great football team that went 10-0 in 1908.

Coached by Edgar R. Wingard (below), the Tigers were dubbed the "point a minute" team as they ran up 442 points in 450 minutes of play.

Fenton's exploits, including 125 points scored, led LSU to the 1908 championship of the Southern Intercollegiate Association.

Edgar R. Wingard coached LSU to an undefeated season in 1908.

Yearly Records

The Southeastern Conference, of which LSU is a charter member, was founded in 1933. Since that time,LSU has fashioned a 229-181-22 (.558) record against the league schools,for the conference's fourth-highest all time winning percentage.
From 1923-32, LSU was affiliated with the 22-member Southern Intercollegiate Conference (SIC) and posted an 18-21-3 (.464) record. Prior to 1923, the Tigers were members of the much larger Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (SIAA) and logged a 37-38-5 (.494) record.

George Tarasovic

CENTER - 1951

National Editorial Alliance

George was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was selected to both All-America and All-SEC status. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. His ability was such that he played in the NFL and the AFL for over a dozen years after returning from the service.

The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold and the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner. Won virtually every honor which can be given. Was almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend,but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. Lettered 1957-58-59. First team All-SEC 1958 and 1959.

Bulwark of White Team which in 1958 won the National Championship. Outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. Roy (Moonie) Winston

GUARD - 1961

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time

First team All-SEC in 1961 by AP and UPI. Also,played on LSU SEC champion baseball team in early 1960's. Had brilliant NFL career with Minnesota.

All-Americans

Fred Miller
TACKLE - 1962

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s,Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School,but he found out he was one English credit short,so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, his team played in two bowls,including the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. Member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall
HALFBACK - 1962
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Stovall was last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Was runner-up in the running for the 1962 Heisman Trophy. First team All-SEC in 1961 by UPI and in 1962 by both AP and UPI. Played nine seasons with the St.Louis Cardinals before becoming assistant at South Carolina. Returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. Took LSU to 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season.

He was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared to the run and,consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. He went on to an illustrious NFL career. First team All SEC by UPI in 1963. Son,Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

George Rice
TACKLE - 1965
Time, The Sporting News

Local lad whose prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football,basketball,and track. Extremely powerful,his specialty at track was the shot put. A devastating blocker and tackler, Rice was another of those who played in three bowl games during his varsity career. First team All-SEC by UPI in 1964. He was a participant in the Hula Bowl and had a long and successful career in the NFL and then returned to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington
END - 1967
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork. Had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size,he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, John picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. First team All-SEC in 1966 by AP and in 1967 by both AP and UPI.

George Bevan

LINEBACKER - 1969

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU. His size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire,competitiveness,leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again,but by the summer of 1969,his determination had earned him a starting role. Although he had many notable moments,his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. First team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1969.He earned his law degree and is an attorney in Baton Rouge.

Tommy Casanova

SAFETY - 1969, 1970, 1971

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions,both on and off the field. One of just two three time All-SEC performers from LSU, 1969-70-71. Played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. Now is an ophthalmologist in his home town.

Mike Anderson

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Started every game during his three years as an LSU linebacker. In fact,he was the second of three straight All-America backers produced by LSU: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Mike was noted for one great play: Auburn there in 1970,LSU leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6'2",225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. First team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1970.

Ronnie Estay

TACKLE - 1971

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie,a true Cajun, anchored the defense which allowed fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. First team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1971.

Bert Jones

QUARTERBACK - 1972

UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Fourth place in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy. As strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. LSU played in three bowl games during his career and won SEC title his sophomore year. Tigers compiled a 26-6-1 mark during his career. Started only two games prior to next-to-last game of junior season,but started every one after that. Most notable feats were against Notre Dame,1971 (28-8),and versus Ole Miss in 1972 when,with time expired, threw touchdown pass to Brad Davis and a 17-16 LSU victory. First team All-SEC by UPI in 1972. First pick in 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

Warren Capone

LSU cadets at football practice in the fall of 1894.

As part of the commemoration of the first 100 years of LSU football in 1993, two teams were selected to represent the greatest players in the history of the Tiger gridiron.

The Early Years Team of the Century represents the best players from 1893, the first year of LSU football, until 1936, generally considered the advent of modern day college football. The Early Years Team of the Century was selected by an 11-man panel of former and current sports journalists and others close to the LSU football program.

The Modern Day Team of the Century was selected through a state wide balloting of fans. The ballots were distributed by direct mail and through newspapers across the state. Any LSU player from 1937 to 1992 who earned All-America, first or second team All-SEC, LSU Sports Hall of Fame or Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame honors was named to the ballot. A total of 163 players were listed on the ballot.

The Modern Day Team is comprised of 12 offensive players, 12 defensive players, a kicker and a punter for a total of 26 Team members. The squad was originally slated to include 24 players, but ties were declared in the running back and linebacker categories.

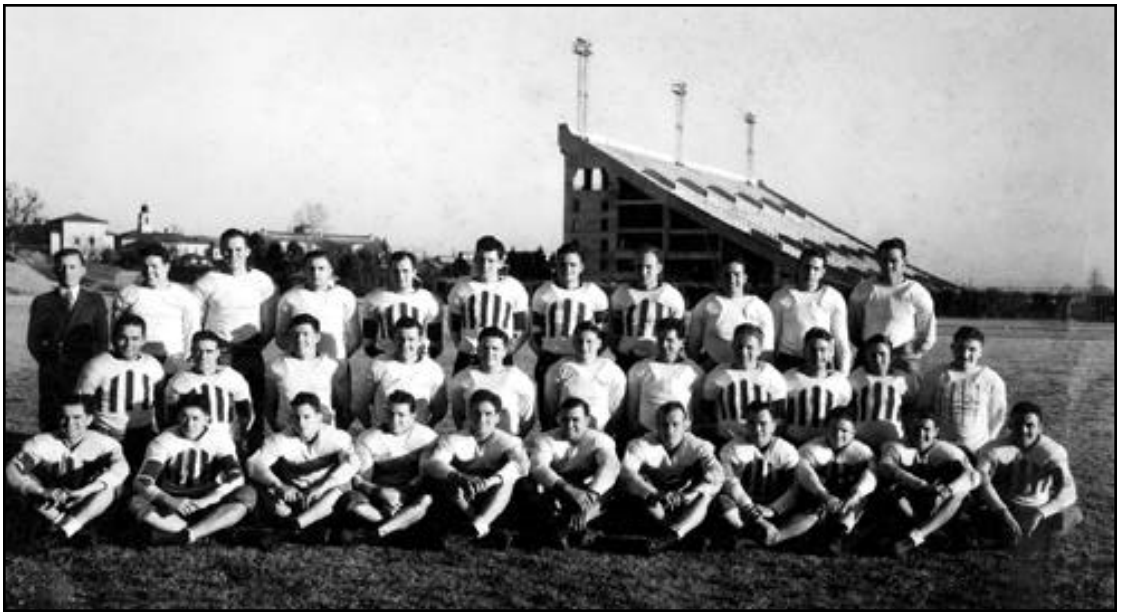
HISTORY

It is impossible to portray the rich history of LSU football in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from Tiger football annals that have contributed to the story that is LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that it will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger athletics.

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers," Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993,and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football,basketball,track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.



The 1931 Tigers

the history of LSU FOOTBALL

Cotton Bowl

One of the most notable games in LSU football history was the 1966 Cotton Bowl against powerful Arkansas. The Razorbacks went into the New Year's Day tilt ranked No. 2 in the country and riding a 22-game winning streak. LSU owned a meager 7-3 mark compared to the Hogs's perfect 10-0 record, but little Joe Labruzzo silenced many a disbeliever to spark the Bayou Bengals to their greatest bowl win. The Tigers left Dallas with a 14-7 win over the Southwest Conference host Razorbacks. The Tigers have appeared in two other Cotton Bowl classics, tying Arkansas 0-0 in the 1947 game and beating Texas 13-0 in 1963.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. Pregame ceremonies feature the LSU Cheerleaders atop Mike the Tiger's cage as it circles the field. The cheerleaders also traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and at the half of every game.

The Chinese Bandits

Chinese Bandits

The nickname of one of the three units utilized in Paul Dietzel's three-platoon system that vaulted the Tigers to the 1958 national championship. That year, the first team was named the White Team, an offensive unit was named the Go Team and a defensive unit was tabbed the Chinese Bandits. The White Team, naturally, wore white jerseys and was so named. The Go Team wore gold jerseys as the word "gold" was eventually shortened to "go." The name "Chinese Bandits" actually originated when Dietzel recalled a line from the old "Terry and The Pirates" comic strip which referred to Chinese Bandits as the "most vicious people in the world." In their heyday, the Chinese Bandits were featured in chinese masks in Life magazine. In 1980 the LSU band revived the Bandit tune played when the LSU defense stalls any opponent's drive.

Crossbar

Unbeknownst to many a Tiger fan, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been tradition that the LSU football team enter the field by running under the goalpost when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until it was finally removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. For many years, it was also tradition that the Tigers run under the goalpost at away games as well. That tradition was maintained, too, until Sept. 29, 1984, when the Tiger troops emerged from the lockerroom of the Los Angeles Coliseum, ran down the track on which the Summer Olympics had been run just months before, and sprinted to a 23-3 rout of the Southern Cal Trojans. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalpost was returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium thanks to a donation from Shaw Industries of Baton Rouge.

The Tigers still run under this crossbar that stood in Tiger Stadium from 1955-1984.

Cuba

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

Dormitories

Stadium Dormitories

Tiger Stadium is unique in that it once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many an LSU student over the years. This concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who can also be credited for bringing night football to Tiger Stadium. Heard learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the endzones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931.

Earthquake

October 8, 1988, has come to be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth." LSU struggled throughout the night against the mighty Tigers of Auburn University in a battle of the SEC elite. The visitors from the Plains had held the hometown Tigers at bay, but LSU, too, had allowed Auburn just a pair of field goals. With but 1:41 to play in the game, on fourth down and nine from the Auburn 10, Tommy Hodson connected with Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for a tying touchdown that vaulted LSU to 7-6 win. The play caused such a thunderous explosion from the crowd of 79,341 that the tremor caused by the vibrations registered on a seismograph in LSU's Geology Department on campus. The seismograph of the week revealed a large block of ink that registered at 9:32 p.m., the exact moment of the winning score. In May of 1994, that memorable event was featured in a "Ripley's Believe It Or Not!" item distributed to newspapers all over the world.

89-Yards

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end.

LSU vs. Tulane

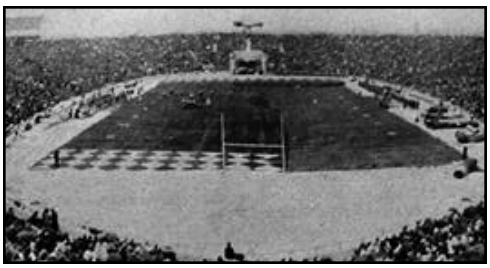
LSU's rivalry with the Green Wave of Tulane was a natural from the game's infancy. The Greenies won LSU's first football game by a 34-0 count, but over the ensuing seasons, the Tigers have dominated the series and own a 64-22-7 margin over their neighbors from New Orleans. The proximity of the schools made for the development of the rivalry in its early years and, by 1913, fans began to travel the distance by automobile instead of by train. Today's Tiger fan can traverse the distance from Tiger Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome in less than 90 minutes, but in the early years, according to the Times Picayune of the day, "with a good car, it can be negotiated in perfect comfort in six hours."

The Golden Band From Tigerland

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. It was Carazo and Long who together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU."

Halloween

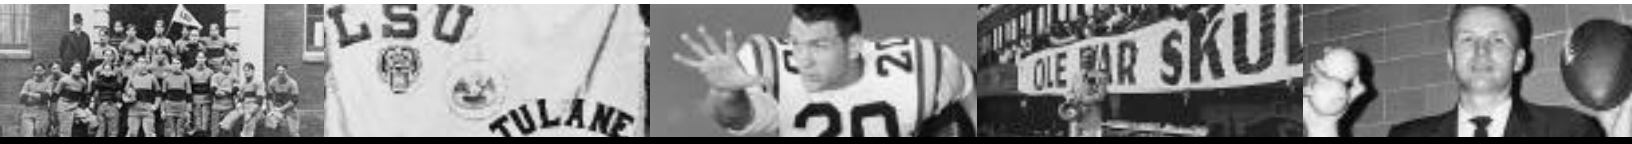
Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on October 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goalline five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year drought before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. In other Halloween games, Ole Miss won 27-16 in 1953, LSU took a 42-13 win in 1987 and Ole Miss won 32-0 in 1992.



The Ice Bowl of 1947 — LSU 0, Arkansas 0

Ice Bowl

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built



The Rag

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. A flag decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold, and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, it was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the flag are unknown.

Oddly enough, this is the most common score for an LSU victory in the 86-game LSU-Tulane series. Three times in this series, one of the oldest rivalries in the South, have the Tigers emerged with a 62-0 triumph. The first time the Bayou Bengals walked away with such a win was in their 1958 national championship season, and they duplicated that accomplishment in their next Southeastern Conference title season of 1961. Once again, four years later, in the midst of a 17-game LSU win streak over the rivals from New Orleans, the Tigers won 62-0 in 1965.

fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard which showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

Indoor Facility

The spring of 1991 brought the opening of LSU's indoor football facility on the "Ponderosa," LSU's practice fields located on South Stadium Drive across from the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine. The need for the facility was never more evident than during the 1988 preseason when heavy rains forced the Tigers to look for higher grounds in preparation for the '88 season opener. The LSU squad practiced in no less than seven different locations, including the Parade Grounds in the middle of campus, the New Orleans Saints' practice facility in New Orleans and the LSU Field House. Nevertheless, that team went on to win the 1988 SEC Championship.

Kingfish

No single person can be credited for building LSU Football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The Kingfish, Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

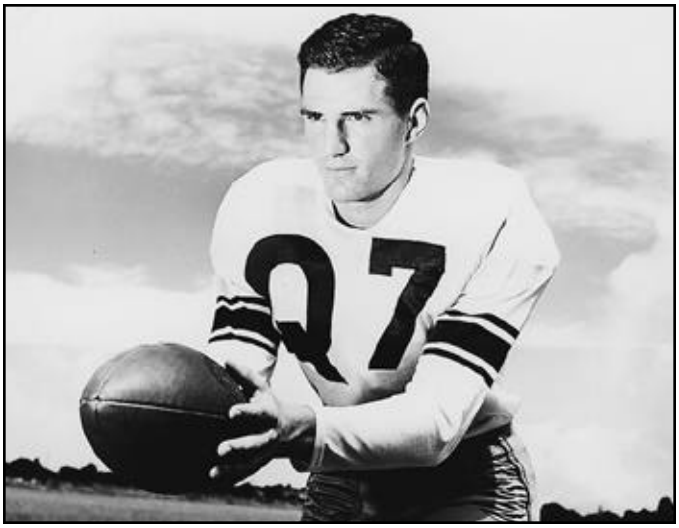
Night Games

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later to be athletic director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night: (1) to avoid the heat and humidity of afternoon games, (2) to avoid scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola, (3) to give some fans who were busy tending to plantations in the afternoon the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and Night Football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. Since 1960, LSU is 173-56-4 (.751) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and only 12-19-3 (.397) during the day at home.

The only man who can wear No. 20: Billy Cannon returned to Tiger Stadium in 1988.

No. 20

Despite the number of colorful figures and outstanding athletes who have come down the pike in the history of LSU football, just one jersey number, No. 20, has been retired. The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 national championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19 straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame.



LSU's unique number system failed to "revolutionize" the world of football.

Numbering System

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique--and short-lived--jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

Ole War Skule

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

Perfect Seasons

LSU has had six unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold--Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

South End Zone

Whether it be the 1959 goalline stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. In the last 15 years alone, the Tiger defenders have put together eight goalline stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas Aggies at the LSU 2-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goalline stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goalline stands against Notre Dame was at the one-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Billy Cannon and Warren Rabb make a stop at the South End Zone.

Tailgating

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of South Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their mobile homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast).

Victory Hill

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism School to play "Tiger Rag" to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo and Nick Saban continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the hotel to Broussard Hall--not Tiger Stadium--in order for the players to make their traditional walk down Victory Hill.

Voice of the Tigers

John Ferguson was the "Voice of the Tigers".

For many years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers" as his call of the action was broadcast nationwide. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard run. By the time Cannon reached midfield on that play, a technician attempted to turn up the sound on Politz' mike to raise it above the crowd noise. In the excitement of the moment, though, he turned the knob the wrong way, lowering the volume and raising the crowd noise, and much of Politz' call of that play is lost forever. Ferguson later returned to the mike as "The Voice," then moved into television where he worked on TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties and remains today the football, basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." The legendary Ferguson is now director emeritus of LSU's Tiger Athletic Foundation.

Tiger fans greet the Tigers as they walk down Victory Hill.

Mike the Tiger

Mike V, the famed live Bengal Tiger, that serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams,begins the 11th year of his reign on the LSU campus.

He proudly rules over a modern, refurbished domicile,just north of Tiger Stadium which is divided into two areas: a concrete space containing a pool and grassy expanse, equipped with a tiger-sized wooden scratching post and a climbing platform. In addition,there is an indoor home into which he can retreat to avoid inclement weather with a large window that allows his fans to view him while inside.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a cage topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium,his cage on wheels is parked next to the opponent's lockerroom in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's cage to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that for every growl elicited by Mike before a football game, the Tigers will score a touchdown that night. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and, today, Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

The Tiger mascot stopped traveling with the LSU team in 1970 when his cage overturned on Airline Highway in an accident en route to a game. Mike IV traveled four times in recent years,though, as he appeared at a Mardi Gras parade in 1984, the 1985 Sugar Bowl and LSU's basketball games in the Superdome.

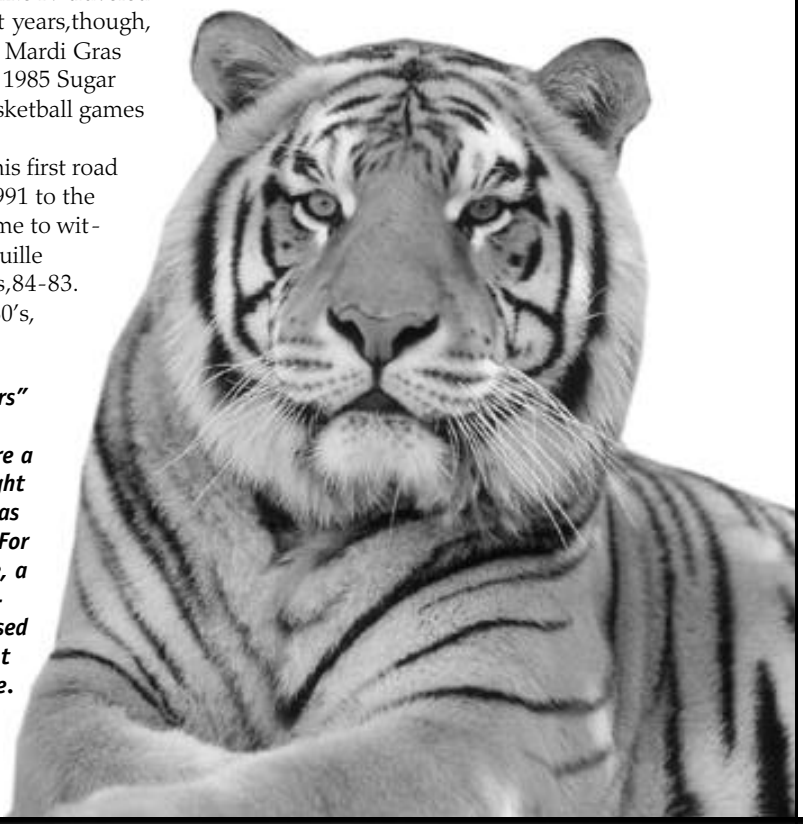
Mike V made his first road trip in December 1991 to the Louisiana Superdome to witness LSU and Shaquille O'Neal defeat Texas,84-83.

In the mid-1980's,

Mike Chambers

pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area,before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminisent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.



The nickname "Tigers" was used for nearly half a century before a live Tiger was brought to the LSU campus as an official mascot. For more than a decade, a very realistic paper-mache´ Tiger was used as the prized mascot of the Ole War Skule. Then in 1935, the legacy of Mike the Tiger began.

MIKE'S FAMILY TREE

MIKE I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo for $750,with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik"at the time of his purchase,his name was changed to Mike for Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. Chambers had played football at Illinois where he blocked for the legendary Red Grange. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia in the midst of a six-game LSU losing streak in 1957. Fearing the LSU faithful would give up hope upon the death of the mascot,Mike's death was not made public until the Tigers finally ended the losing streak.

MIKE II

Served a brief reign,lasting only the 1957 season, before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958.He was born at the Audubon Park Zoo near the Tulane campus in New Orleans.

MIKE III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season,Mike III was purchased from the Seattle Zoo following a "national search"by then-athletic director Jim Corbett.The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

MIKE IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa,Fla,on Aug.29,1976.Born on May 15,1974,Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990.The centerpiece of the Zoo's cat exhibit, Mike weighs in at 500 pounds.His only hiatus from the LSU campus before 1990 was the summer of 1981 which he spent at the Little Rock Zoo while his cage was being refurbished. Ironically, the Little Rock Zoo was the birthplace of the first Mike the Tiger. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

MIKE V

The newest tiger mascot was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Molten,Ala. Avid LSU supporter Charles Becker, a member of the LSU booster group the Tammany Tigers, put Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in touch with the Atchisons. Bivin traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct.18,1989,the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990,when he was moved into the tiger cage across from Tiger Stadium.

Tiger Rag

(Hold That Tiger)

Long ago, way down in the jungle
Someone got an inspiration for a tune,
And that jingle brought from the jungle
Became famous mighty soon.

Thrills and chills it sends thru you!
Hot! so hot, it burns you too!

Tho'it's just the growl of the tiger
It was written in a syncopated way,
More and more they howl for the"Tiger"
Ev'ry where you go today
They're shoutin'

Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger!

Touchdown for LSU!

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town,
They fight! They fight! Call a first down,
Just look them over, and how they can go,
Smashing the line with runs and passes high and low.

Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers'score.
Give them hell and a little bit more.
Come on you Tigers,Fight them, you Tigers,
Touchdown for LSU.
Rah! U. Rah!

LSU Alma Mater

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias
shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Alma Mater
who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts
a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love
that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending
be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth
we pray to keep it true,
And thy spirit dwell in us forever...L-S-U.

LSU HERITAGE

NICKNAME:

Fighting Tigers

Way back in the fall of 1896,coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record,and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers.

"Tigers"seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers"dates back to the Civil War.

During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah.

These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition,they tagged themselves as the "Tigers".

It was the 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club"that helped the moniker "Tigers"grow into the nickname,"Fighting Tigers".

COLORS:

Purple and Gold

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors.

It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad.

Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25,1893,football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game.

Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras — purple,gold and green.— for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

Tiger Stadium

For the college football fan, it doesn't get any better than Tiger Stadium. Already considered one of the loudest athletic venues in the world, an additional 11,600 seats were added last season making Death Valley one of the most intimidating stadiums in all of college football.

Once the new East Upper Deck was completed, Tiger Stadium,with a seating capacity of 91,600,became the fourth-largest on-campus football stadium in the country. In the first year of the newly-expanded Tiger Stadium,LSU averaged school-record 87,815 fans a contest,the fifth-highest total in the nation in 2000.Three times last year, LSU drew crowds of 90,000 or more including a school-record mark of 91,778 against Alabama.

In addition to the new east upper deck,70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens"were built giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations.The addition of the 11,600 seats marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978 when the west upper deck was completed.

But stadium size is only part of the story of this cathedral to college football.

Poll after poll have proclaimed Tiger Stadium,known throughout America as "Death Valley," as the greatest site anywhere for a college football game.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America." And in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987 that show Tiger Stadium to be the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Indeed, Tiger Stadium is legendary in college football circles for its overflowing, raucous crowds and for uncountable memories that have been spawned inside the mammoth structure.

Last year alone, the goal posts came down twice.Immediately after the Tigers upset then No.11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime,the capacity crowd of 91,682 spilled onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers'held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the season as the Tigers' posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts came down for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand ol' stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Tiger Stadium as both goal posts came crashing down -- a scene that was replayed countless times in college football highlight shows.

Perhaps the most famous moment in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," October 8, 1988.When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No.1-ranked Southern Cal before a sellout crowd on September 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short,but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And of course there was Halloween night,1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

THERE'S PROOF IN THE POLLING

Sport Magazine names Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America."

1996

ESPN proclaim's LSU's pregame party to be the best in college football.

1995

Gannett News Service, in a poll of college football head coaches,names Tiger Stadium as the most dreaded road playing site in America.

1989

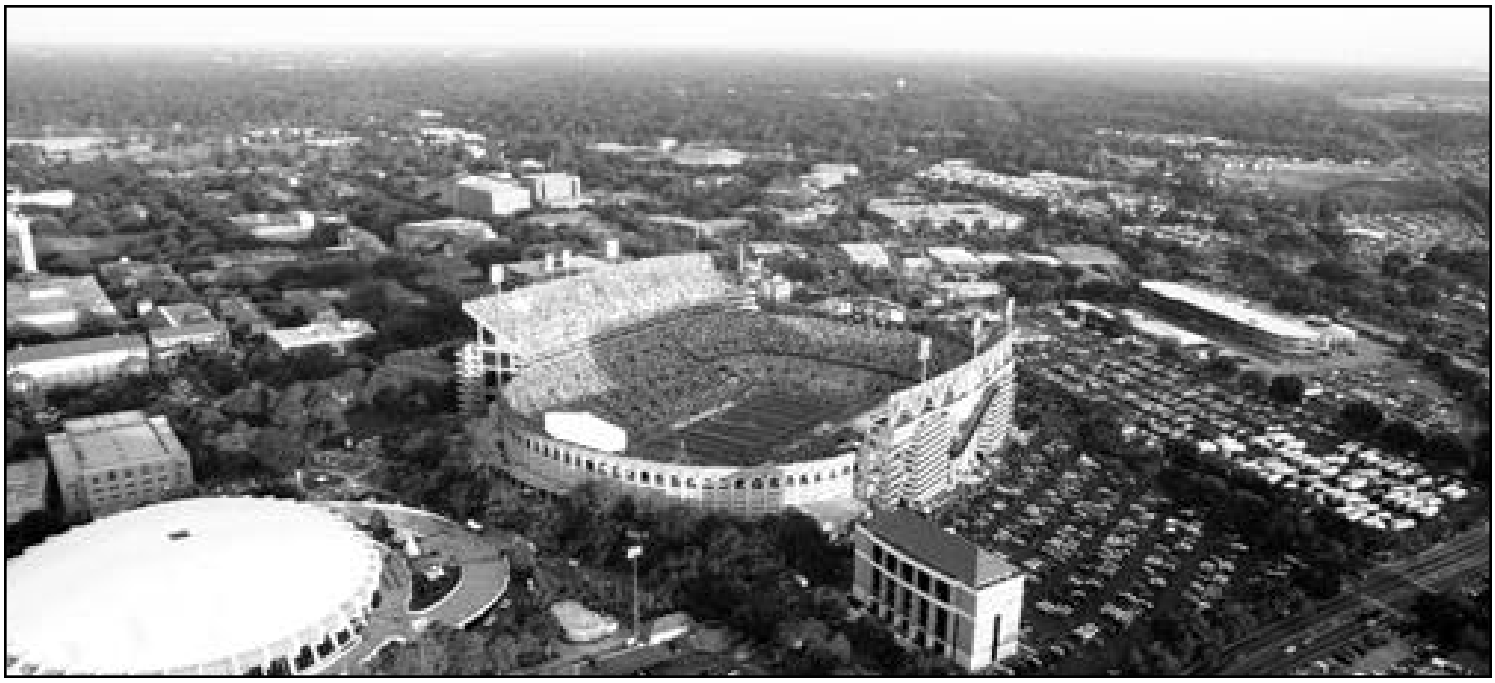
The Sporting News rates Tiger Stadium No. 1 among "The 10 best places to attend a college football game."

1987

The College Football Association, in a poll of the nation's Division I-A head coach, determines that Tiger Stadium is the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Those are the highlights,some of the moments which shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Tiger Stadium



LSU has averaged 70,968 spectators for each of its 277 battles in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Last year, 614,704 fans witnessed seven home games in Tiger Stadium.

Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations,LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance 38 of 43 seasons.The Tigers have drawn 19,658,160 fans since 1957.

LSU's all-time record in Tiger Stadium is a sparkling 318-133-18 (.697),and since the start of football at LSU in 1893,the Tigers have posted a home record of 398-154-19 (.714).

The home of one of football's proudest traditions,this unique structure also once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall,then LSU's athletic dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986,the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931),the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to Above: As the sun prepares to set on Tiger Stadium on a Saturday evening during the fall, the possibility always exists that more than 91,000 crazed LSU fans will be witness to another brilliant chapter in the stadium's illustrious history.

The Tigers touch the crossbar one final time for luck, then charge the field with the unbridled passion of a Tiger Stadium crowd behind them.

22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000 with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end,making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953, when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. Additional seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985,when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987,when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were once again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet to the south in 1986, to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence which surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

The Tiger Stadium press box was redecorated prior to the 1987 season, and a few more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands. Also,the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered prior to the 1987 season, to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150 and the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season to accommodate renovated visiting team dressing facilities, and other ensuing seating adjustments,brought the capacity to 80,000, its size until the expansion for the 2000 football season.

The 1958 LSU Football National Champions

For years, LSU fans eagerly anticipated the coming of each new football season with talk of the two Tiger teams regarded as LSU's national champions—the great 10-0 team of 1908 and "next year." After 50 years,next year finally came in 1958.

After seasons of 3-5-2, 3-7 and 5-5 under coach Paul Dietzel, and a team which included only three seniors among its 55-man roster, it didn't seem likely that 1958 would be "next year." Indeed, with a squad dominated by juniors and sophomores,many pointed toward 1959 as the year LSU would make a run at the top.

The LSU Fighting Tigers opened the 1958 campaign Sept.20 at Houston against the Rice Owls.Although early in the season, Dietzel's Tigers, divided into three units—the White team, the Gold team (later shortened to Go) and the Chinese Bandits—showed unusual poise and balance.LSU scored in each period en route to a 26-6 victory over a team it lost to the two previous seasons.

The following week, the Tigers traveled to Mobile to take on Alabama in its first game under Paul "Bear"Bryant. LSU came away with a hard-fought 13-3 win before returning to Baton Rouge for its home opener against Hardin-Simmons. Against the Cowboys, the Tigers built a 20-6 halftime lead and used it to coast to its victory before only 45,000 fans,indicating that few had any idea what kind of team this would become.

Coach Paul Dietzel with halfback Johnny Robinson (34), quarterback Warren Rabb (12) and halfback Billy Cannon (20).

LSU, now ranked No. 11, hit the road again the following week and served notice to the college football world. The Tigers routed the Miami Hurricanes 41-0 at the Orange Bowl to improve their record to 4-0, their best start since 1937.

No. 9 LSU completed the first half of its schedule with a 32-7 victory over Kentucky before a home crowd of 65,000, the largest yet to see the Tigers play. Sixty-three thousand turned out the following week anxious to see if the Bayou Bengals could snap a three-game losing streak to Florida in LSU's Homecoming game.The outcome was in doubt until the final three minutes,when placekicker/fullback Tommy Davis booted a 29-yard field goal, giving the Tigers a 10-7 victory.

Now 6-0, LSU earned the AP poll's No. 1 ranking. But the Tigers knew they had to overcome Johnny Vaught's deadly Ole Miss Rebels if they wished to remain on top, something they hadn't done since 1950.

The Rebels drove to second-and-one,just a foot from LSU's end zone, early in the second quarter before 67,500 fans, the first sellout in Tiger Stadium history. They were turned back by a superb defensive effort by the White team defenders. After that, it was all LSU as White team quarterback Warren Rabb and Go team signal-caller Durel Matherne ran for scores in the 14-0 Tiger triumph over their archrivals.

Now 7-0 and ranked No.1 by AP, the Tigers had yet to impress the UPI board of coaches enough to earn the top rating, staying in the No. 3 position going into a home game with Duke. Although the Blue Devils did some things no other team could do against LSU all season—take an early lead, outgain the Tigers 353-yards to 285 and put a total of 18 points on the board—it was simply not enough. LSU bombed Duke for 22 points in the second quarter to take a 28-6 halftime lead and went on to a 50-18 victory.

When the UPI poll came out the following week, LSU was a unanimous No.1 selection, a position it would not relinquish until it sustained a bitter 14-13 defeat at the hands of Tennessee in week eight of the 1959 season.

One week later, LSU traveled to Jackson, Miss., for a game against Mississippi State.It was a game in which 8-0 LSU could lose everything and the 3-4 Bulldogs could lose nothing. On a muddy field and with the Tigers tense,Miss. State took a 6-0 halftime lead and made it hold up until LSU faced a fourth and goal situation at State's 5 in the third quarter. With a possible national championship on the line, Rabb rolled left and found Billy Hendrix in the end zone to tie the game. Davis'extra point put LSU ahead 7-6 and allowed the Tigers to escape Jackson 9-0.

With one game against ancient rival Tulane separating LSU from its first recognized national championship (in those days, the wire services awarded their national championship trophies before the bowl games),some wondered how the Tigers would approach the 3-6 Green Wave, but a quote from Tulane halfback Claude "Boo" Mason took care of that.After losing to Vanderbilt, Mason told a reporter,"We'll beat

The Chinese Bandits pose for Life Magazine in 1958.

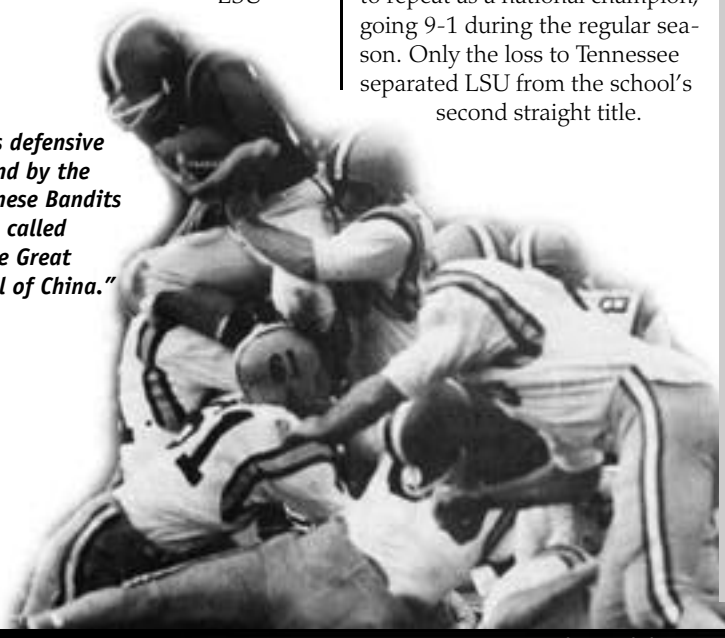
LSU because they'll choke."

Whether the Tigers would choke was subject to debate at halftime,as LSU led only 6-0 before a then Southeastern Conference record crowd of 83,221 in Sugar Bowl Stadium.However, LSU took command in the second half,taking full advantage of Green Wave mistakes en route to a 35-point fourth quarter and a 62-0 thrashing of Tulane,the most lop-sided score in the history of the series.Incredibly, LSU would defeat the Greenies by the same score in 1961 and 1965.

With a 10-0 record and national championship in hand, LSU accepted an invitation to take on the Tigers of Clemson, in the 25th annual Sugar Bowl Classic on New Year's Day, 1959.Once again, LSU found an opponent with little to lose but much recognition to gain in 8-2 Clemson, as Frank Howard's troops tried to deny LSU its first perfect season in 50 years.

After fighting off a series of bad breaks, including a fractured hand by Rabb in the first quarter, LSU got a break of its own when Chinese Bandit Duane Leopard recovered a fumbled punt attempt on the Clemson 11. On third and eight at the 9,Billy Cannon took a handoff from Matherne and hit Mickey Mangham with a touchdown pass on the halfback option for the game's only score.

The following season, a more experienced LSU team demonstrated how difficult it was to repeat as a national champion, going 9-1 during the regular season. Only the loss to Tennessee separated LSU from the school's second straight title.



This defensive stand by the Chinese Bandits was called "The Great Wall of China."

Billy Cannon

HB

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength.

Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and,at 6-1,210 pounds,he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957,he was an immediate standout as a sophomore,offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl,and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11 and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt.LSU won the contest 7-3.Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

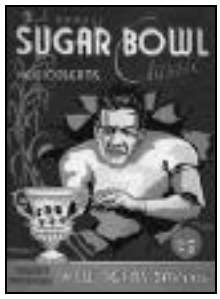
1936 Sugar Bowl

TCU 3, LSU 2



Four days of rain turned an expected passing battle into a punting duel between quarterbacks Sammy Baugh of TCU and LSU's Abe Mickal. The Tigers threatened often,once getting to the six-inch line,but TCU's Taldon Manton kicked a winning 36-yard field goal. LSU scored when All America end Gaynell Tinsley harassed Baugh into throwing an incompletion in the TCU end zone for an automatic safety.

It was a case of two separate games: the first half was all Missouri and the second half all LSU. The only trouble was that the Big Eight team put more points on the board in its half than the SEC entry did in its. Missouri piled up a seemingly commanding 20-3 halftime advantage,but Coach Charles McClendon's charges came out firing.Although they were not able to overcome the score, they did pile up 247 yards to 84, and 15 first downs to four over Missouri.All-America tailback Charles Alexander played his last game as a Tiger and made it memorable as he gained 133 yards on 24 carries.

LSU

The History of LSU

1860's - 1920's

The institution opened January 2, 1860 and subsequently closed June 30, 1861, because of the Civil War. It reopened on April 1,but was again closed on April 23, 1863, due to the invasion of the Red River Valley by the federal army.

The seminary (as it was originally referred) reopened October 2, 1865, only to be burned October 15, 1869. Just over two weeks later, the institution resumed its exercises in Baton Rouge, where it has since remained.In 1870, the name of the institution was changed to Louisiana State University.

In 1875, the institution became racially integrated. Just two years following,LSU's official title was changed to Louisiana State University and A&M College and became a land-grant institution.

In 1886, the federal garrison grounds (now the site of the state capitol) were formally declared the domicile of the University. Land for the present campus was purchased in 1918.

It was 1893 when LSU played its first football game, and three years later LSU adopted the tiger as the official mascot.

1920's

With the support of Governor John M. Parker and the approval of a severance tax during the constitutional convention of 1921, the construction of the new campus,known today as Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College,began.

The Gym-Armory was built west of the academic quadrangle for the purpose of housing the LSU basketball team and other indoor sporting events. Tiger Stadium was completed in 1924 and on Thanksgiving Day of that year, Tulane and LSU played the first game on the new campus. In 1928, upward expansion added 10,000 seats to the already 12,000-seat stadium.

The formal dedication of the new campus took place on Friday, April 30, 1926. The date was chosen because on April 30, 1803 the United States Congress signed the Louisiana Purchase documents.

1930's

During this time many of LSU's live oaks and magnolias were planted by landscape artist Steele Burden for what has become a symbolic part of the great legacy at LSU. The live oak trees on LSU's campus have been valued at $36 million.Through the LSU Foundation's "Endow an Oak" program,individuals or groups are able to endow live oaks across campus.

In 1930, the student body adopted the alma mater that still is in use today.
LSU is the home of The Southern Review, one of the world's most prestigious literary journals, established in the 1930s by Robert Penn Warren, Cleanth Brooks,and Charles Pipkin.

The Huey P. Long Fieldhouse was constructed in 1932 and served as the campus' first student union.The Long Field House contained administrative offices and an outdoor pool that was the world's largest at the time.

In 1937, two new athletic venues were completed and was expanded.The John M. Parker Coliseum opened and served as a multipurpose arena mostly for livestock shows and rodeos.It was also used for commencements and convocations and served as home of the LSU basketball team.Alex Box Stadium also served as football practice fields. Tiger Stadium received its second expansion,adding a north endzone and bringing the capacity to 46,000.

Huey P. Long and Castro Carazo teamed up to co-author notable songs "Touchdown for LSU" and "Hey Fightin' Tigers!" During his tenure at LSU Carazo compiled one of the most complete university band libraries in America.

1940's

Until 1969 the ROTC program at Louisiana State University was mandatory for all entering male students. The military heritage began under General William T. Sherman and hence developed the name "Ole War Skule." Not many people know about LSU's rich military tradition.In WWII,only Texas A&M and the Military Academies of Annapolis and West Point were equal to the Ole War Skule in providing officers to the armed forces.

In 1943, the LSU Band invited its first coed member.

1950's

In 1950 LSU enrolled black students into its graduate program for the first time. Throughout the 1950s,air conditioning slowly began to be phased into administration and classroom buildings throughout the campus.

A.P. Tureaud,Jr.,enrolled, but resigned before the end of the fall term in 1953, while Brown vs.The Board of Education of Topeka,Kansas, struck down racial segregation in public schools a year later.

Tiger Stadium was expanded in 1957 with the south endzone providing the final piece of the puzzle to completely enclose the stadium.The enclosure provided not only additional seating but also men's dormitories. Capacity now reached 67,720.

The LSU Tiger Football team won the 1958 National Championship, defeating Clemson, 7-0,in the Sugar Bowl and finishing with an 11-0 season.

1960's

In 1964, a $5.5 million student union was built with 200,000 square feet of entertainment.The three-story facility accommodated a 1,315 seat theatre,333 seat movie cinema,bowling alley, game room and pool hall, post office,cafeteria and craft shop as well as ballrooms and conference rooms for hosting seminars and special events.

Also that year, six black students enrolled in undergraduate studies.

By the end of the decade,rising tensions due to U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War were mounting.The LSU ROTC program became a target for protestors as dissatisfaction with the war increased.The pressure increased for LSU to either cancel its program or make it voluntary. In October 1968, the LSU Faculty Council voted to make the ROTC program voluntary, and on May 26, 1969 the LSU Board of Supervisors made it official.

1970's

Former professor T. Harry Williams was honored with the Pulitzer Prize for his biography of Huey Long in 1970.

With the growing popularity of collegiate athletics,two new athletic facilities were built and another was being expanded. In 1971, LSU basketball not only welcomed new coach Dale Brown,but it also introduced a state-of-the-art 15,000-seat multipurpose arena.The Assembly Center would eventually be known as the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and nicknamed "The P-MAC" after the death of LSU basketball and NBA legend "Pistol" Pete Maravich in the late 1980's.

In 1974, Athletics Director, Carl Maddox expanded the growing LSU athletic compound with the addition of a multi-purpose sports and recreational complex that now bears his name, the Carl Maddox Field House. Tiger Stadium again expanded in 1978 by adding 8,000-seats in a new West Upper Deck to lead the Tiger football program into the next decade with a capacity of nearly 80,000-seats.

In 1978, LSU was named a sea-grant college becoming one of only 25 universities in the country recognized as both a land and sea-grant institution.

1980's

Former professor John Kennedy Toole posthumously won the Pulitzer Prize for his fictional work,A Confederacy of Dunces.

In 1985, the Natatorium was built for the LSU Swimming & Diving program as the United States Sports Festival came to Baton Rouge.

James Wharton introduced a new admissions policy that would increase university admission standards.The standards would require high school students to complete a list of core requirements throughout their high school careers.In 1987, the board of supervisors approved the proposed admission standards.

In 1987, LSU was designated as a Research University I,putting it in the top 2% of the nation's colleges and universities.Only 70 universities, 45 public and 25 private,have this designation.

1990's

In 1992, The Student Recreational Sports Complex opened to rave reviews by LSU students and faculty.

On May 20, 1994, the LSU Alumni Association dedicated its new home.Special honorees attending were Lod Cook,President Gerald Ford, President Jimmy Carter, President George Bush,White House Chief of Staff Mac McLardy, and Governor Edwin Edwards.

Head Coach Skip Bertman built the LSU baseball program into one of the most dominating programs in the country. With National Championships coming in 1991, 93, 96, and 97, the Tigers would continue their dynasty into the next century by winning its fifth title in 2000. By the late 1990's the LSU Tiger baseball team became known as the "Program of the Decade" by all of college baseball.

Speaking of dynasties,LSU Head Track & Field Coach Pat Henry has managed to reach major milestones throughout his 14 years at LSU. He has led the Lady Tiger track & field team to 18 National Titles,11 outdoor and seven indoor. His men's teams have won three NCAA titles, most recently the 2001 indoor crown.Henry is the only coach in NCAA history to guide both the men and women team to NCAA titles in the same year. Under Henry's direction,the LSU track & field program has attained unparalleled success: 21 NCAA titles and 19 SEC crowns.

As a university, LSU has accounted for 36 NCAA titles.Henry has served as head coach for better than half of LSU's national crowns.

Skip Bertman

Athletics Director

J. Stanley"Skip"Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19,2001, succeeding Joe Dean, who finished his 14-year term as A.D. on Dec. 31,2000. Bertman, who completed a brilliant 18-year career this June as LSU's head baseball coach, served both as athletics director and head coach during the 2001 baseball season before assuming the full-time role as A.D. in August.

With Bertman,LSU gains an athletics director who can provide the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' nearly $35 million athletic budget.He is one of the most respected people in the Baton Rouge community and throughout the state of Louisiana. His talent as a fund-raiser and businessman, as well as a public relations mastermind, developed the LSU baseball program into the best in the nation.

One only has to look at what Bertman has accomplished with the Tiger baseball program over the last 18 years to see he brings all the tools necessary to direct LSU's 20-sport athletic department.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA titles, including back to-back championships in 1996 and 1997.His teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium,as LSU led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001). Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program.

Those same characteristics will carry over to the athletics director's chair, where Bertman has inherited a program considered to be one of the best in the country.

Bertman, 63, guided the baseball Tigers to a 870-330-3 (.724) record in his 18-year tenure,including the 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 2000 NCAA titles, 11 College World Series appearances and Southeastern Conference championships in 1986,1990, 1991,1992,1993, 1996 and 1997. He was named National Coach of the Year on six occasions -- 2000, 1997, 1996,1993, 1991 and 1986, and he served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

In a Baseball America poll released in January, 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. LSU was voted No.3 in a poll of the greatest college baseball programs of the century.

LSU is one of only three schools to win five NCAA championships, and the Tigers are one of only 10 teams to have made 11 College World Series appearances. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles,and LSU (1990s) and Southern California (1970s) are the only schools to win four championships in one decade.

Bertman mastered the art of winning big games throughout his career, guiding the Tigers to a 21-4 record in championship games in NCAA post-season play. That mark includes all NCAA Regional, NCAA Super Regional and College World Series championship contests.Bertman also directed LSU to the highest all-time NCAA Tournament winning percentage with a 89-29 (.754) record.

Bertman led LSU to its fifth national title in 2000, as the Tigers recorded a 52-17 mark, including a perfect 13-0 post-season record. LSU won the SEC Tournament with four straight wins, and the Tigers raced to a 9-0 mark in the NCAA Tournament.The Tigers captured the national title with a thrilling 6-5 win over Stanford in the CWS championship game,as LSU scored four runs in the last two innings to overcome a 5-2 deficit. Catcher Brad Cresse's RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning drove home shortstop Ryan Theriot with the winning run. LSU became only the third school in NCAA baseball history to win five national championships,joining Southern California and Arizona State.

The Tigers took their first crucial step toward college baseball prominence in 1983 when Bertman was hired to pump new blood into the program. He had previously earned stellar recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83).

Bertman was known as the "best assistant coach in college baseball" while a member of Ron Fraser's staff at Miami, and he brought to LSU the same brand of exciting, winning baseball he helped install at UM.

Even before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence.In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School,he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes.He was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

Bertman left Miami Beach High School in 1974 to author the book, Coaching Youth League Baseball, funding the project out of his own resources.The book has become required reading for youth league coaches around the nation and in many foreign countries.

In 1975,Bertman went back to coaching at Miami-Dade Downtown,leaving after one season to join Fraser at Miami.The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60.He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters -- Jan, Jodi,Lisa and Lori.The Bertmans have two grandchildren -- Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard.

All-Sports Success

LSU's athletic program has traditionally been strong throughout all of its varsity sports and has fielded nationally-competitive teams in most of its sports.

A total of 14 of LSU's 20 athletic teams finished their seasons ranked in the nation's top 25 for their respective sports during the 2000-01 athletic year, and of those, six finished in the top 10.Only six of LSU's 20 sports were not ranked in 2000-01.

LSU has won 100 Southeastern Conference championships in all sports and has claimed 36 national titles.

Athletics as a Business

Athletics is mistakenly thought of as merely entertainment.In fact, the total revenues of over $21 million generated annually by the Athletic Department is:

- twice that of the sales of an average manufacturing plant in Louisiana
- twice the volume of an average food processor
- and about seven times more than the typical apparel plant in the state

More than 1.1 million fans saw LSU athletes compete in 2000-2001.

Attendance

LSU teams draw some of the largest crowds in all of college athletics:

- More than 1.1 million fans watched LSU athletics in all 20 sports during the 2000-01 athletic year.
- Over the last 10 years, LSU football attendance has averaged over 70,000 fans per game.Last season,LSU set a school-record by averaging over 87,000 fans a contest, a number that ranked fifth nationally. LSU's average of 87,000 fans a contest makes Tiger Stadium, on a Saturday night,more populated than 50 of Louisiana's 64 parishes.
- LSU baseball set the standard in college baseball for attendance again in 2001 as over 300,000 fans watched the Tigers play at Alex Box Stadium in regular and post-season play.

CHAMPS Program

LSU sponsors a fully-funded life skills program for student-athletes.The program is called CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success. Under the CHAMPS program, LSU sets up a number of projects and workshops that aid student-athletes in addressing day-to-day living situations,handling stress,and preparing for post-college life.

Under the CHAMPS program, LSU also establishes community service projects in which student-athletes organize and participate.The LSU CHAMPS program sponsors an annual Halloween "Boo-Zar" on campus.The boozar is a trick-or-treat night in the LSU Field House in which athletes from all sports distribute candy to Baton Rouge area children. The event is designed to give parents and children a fun and safe place to participate in Halloween activities.

Each athletic team participates in CHAMPS workshops which educate them in life skills and per Tiger football players sign autographs at the annual Champs Boozar.

Community Involvement

Because of the athletic faciliti is able to attract many events and munity in both public relations an past hosted such events as the Na Sports Festival (now called the Olympic Festival) and the International Special Olympics. Last Summer, LSU hosted the US Senior Olympics and in the past has hosted the US Junior National Track & Field Championships.

The LSU campus is annually the site of high school track and field championships, bringing to campus thousands of young people and their parents. LSU will host the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships at Bernie Moore Stadium.

The Southeastern Conference

In the ever-changing world of intercollegiate athletics,the tradition of excellence in the Southeastern Conference has remained constant.

When the SEC was formed in 1933, college football was still in its infancy. Numbers on uniforms were not yet mandatory and helmets were optional. If there was more than one incomplete pass in a team's series,that team was penalized five yards.

One year later, in 19 before the advent of the Associated Press and United Press International polls - an SEC team,Alabama, was named a national football champion by four rating services - Dunkel, Houlgate, Poling and Williamson.

The SEC began play in 1933 with 13 teams, 10 of which continue to play today in the league. Only Georgia Tech, Tulane and Sewanee have dropped from the SEC since then and two schools - South Carolina and Arkansas - were added before the 1992 season.

It's this consistency that has made the Southeastern Conference a leader in college football.

SEC rivalries are some of the most recognized in the country. Auburn and Georgia have met on the gridiron 104 times. Ole Miss and Mississippi State have battled 97 times. Kentucky and Tennessee have played 96 times and Tennessee and Vanderbilt have met 94 times. And, rivalries like Alabama-Auburn,Georgia-Florida and Alabama-Tennessee are considered the fiercest in college football.

The SEC has maintained its place as one of the top conferences in college football by vision and leadership. The SEC was the first to have a conference championship game, the first to have its own national television package and the first to have seven post-season bowl tie-ins.

Winning - on and off the field of play - is another SEC trademark. Since 1951, SEC on 14 national nships,including nnessee's in 1998. The 12 schools currently in he SEC have appeared in 309 post-season bowl games - the most of any conference in the country. The SEC has posted a winning non-conference record every year since 1933 with the exception of one season (1979).

This season,the Southeasetern Conference became the first conference to place nine teams in post-season bowl games. During the last two seasons,the SEC put eight teams each year in post-season bowl games,which had been the highest total ever.

Off the field, 1,228 football players made the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the 1990s. The SEC has had 120 of its football student-athletes named to the Academic All-America first team since 1954. And,in 1998-99, Georgia's Matt Stinchcomb was named the GTE Academic All-American of the Year.

The NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, given to student-athletes who maintain a cumulative 3.0 grade point average during their collegiate careers and perform with distinction in varsity football, has been awarded to 63 former SEC gridiron standouts.

What makes Southeastern Conference football so great? Several things are for sure - fans packing SEC stadiums in record

The SEC office located in Birmingham, Alabama.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the SEC

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility.

Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner in 1940, as an extension of the authority of the presidents. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee,served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

Roy Kramer
Commissioner

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointment of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner in 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement in 1966. The Alabama native,who was reared in Texas and was experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H.Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman in 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced uparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel, took the office in 1986 after McWhorter.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller in 1990. Kramer has served on numerous NCAA committees and joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletics director at Vanderbilt. Under his leadership, the Southeastern Conference has expanded by two teams, introduced the concept of a Division I-A football playoff game and has recently signed the most lucrative television contract in the league's history.

The SEC distributed approximately $73.2 million to the 12 league institutions in the revenue sharing plans for the 1999-2000 fiscal year. The figure is the highest in league history. The monies are generated from football television, bowls, SEC Football Championship Game, basketball television,the SEC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament and the NCAA Championships.

For the sixth-straight season in 2001,CBS will be the national network broadcaster of Southeastern Conference football. The network also carries SEC men's and women's basketball games. Credentials

Credentials for LSU home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to severe space limitations and demands.

• All members of the media must request credentials in writing through sports information director Michael Bonnette.

• Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers and sports directors of television and radio stations. Requests from individuals not employed by a media outlet will not be considered.

• Requests from radio stations must come from the sports director of that radio station and may be filled with a ticket in the stands of Tiger Stadium due to space restrictions in the LSU press box.

• The official website of LSU athletics and the official website of the visiting school will be credentialed.Also, the official online service of the national over-the-air or cable television network which owns broadcast rights to the game requested will receive credentials. Other websites will not be credentialed unless they meet specifications outlined below:

1. Must be a legal corporate entity which has been in business at least one full calendar year and has provided coverage of LSU or the visiting team for at least one year.
2. Must provide daily coverage of ALL athletic teams of LSU or the visiting team with its own staff of reporters,photographers and equipment.
3. Must travel to and cover all football away games and all major post-season events.
4. Must provide coverage of all press conferences of ALL athletic teams at LSU or the visiting team.
5. Must be accredited by home university as working media.

Note: Websites that sponsor message boards,message centers or chat rooms where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials. If a medium has an online site and they sponsor these anonymous forums,they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio, television),but will not be granted additional passes for online staff.

• Spouses,dates, non-workers and anyone under 18 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.

Sidelines

LSU follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

• Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25 yard lines and must wear armbands at all times.
• Armbands must be worn on the arm -- not on the leg or camera.
• No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers,equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two teams' broadcast originating networks.
• Armbands will not be mailed or otherwise issued prior to gameday. Armbands must be picked up at the press elevator no earlier than two hours before kickoff.
• Only one armband will be issued per person at the press gate and identification will be requested.
• Due to space restrictions, those media wearing armbands will not have access to the press box at any time without other proper credential. A box lunch will be served at ground level for photographers.
• No one under 18 years of age will be issued an armband for sideline access.
• Photographers should contact Steve Franz, LSU Coordinator of Photography, for further information at (225) 578-4193.

Press Box Services

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches' quotes and game facts will be distributed to members of the working media.

• Press kits are provided 30 minutes prior to kickoff, or earlier upon request. Press kits include program, flip card, updated statistics for each team,conference statistics and gameday notes.
• A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks will be available throughout the game.

Parking

Media parking is located in lots nearby Tiger Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

Pro Scouts

The area immediately adjacent to Tiger Stadium where satellite trucks are parked becomes very congested with pedestrian traffic in the hours prior to kickoff. Any satellite truck arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by noon Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be approved by SID Michael Bonnette.

shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Alma Mater
who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts

And make us happy for the love

All hail to thee our Alma Mater,

May greater glory, love unending
be forever thine.

we pray to keep it true,
And thy spirit dwell in us
